

DR. BOLAND HEADS LABOR BOARD UNTIL END OF YEAR

DR. BOLAND, Chairman of the New York State Labor Board, will continue in that post until the end of the year. Dr. Boland has been appointed pastor of the Church of St. Thomas Aquinas here, but at the expressed request of Gov. Herbert

H. Lehman and with the consent of the Most Rev. John A. Duffy, Bishop of Buffalo, arrangement was made for him to continue in his State post.

Dr. Boland, who was appointed to the labor board chairmanship in 1937 will continue to do labor mediation and arbitration work for the State after he resumes his pastorate, it was stated.

CRUCIFIX FOR MEDICAL CENTER

At the Naval Medical Center, Bethesda, Md., Rev. Robert J. White, U.S.N.R., Catholic Chaplain, celebrated the Mass at service blessing a 18-foot crucifix carved from rare mahogany taken from the Cathedral of St. Dominic in Ciudad Trujillo, capital of the Dominican Republic, where Christopher Columbus is said to be buried. Francis Zuchetto of the Catholic University's art school carved the crucifix. In the picture, Rev. John Jeppon, of the Suffragan Seminary, explains the services over the microphone. (N.C.W.C.)

BOY SCOUT PLANS

By HELEN MACCHIA
The Boy Scouts, members of Troop 213 of Holy Family Parish, have had quite a varied program scheduled for this summer.

A day hike has been planned for Saturday Aug 8. The Scouts will leave in a body from the school courtyard at 8:20 in the morning. The boys are in for a full day of scouting and advancement.

Another event is scheduled for Tuesday Aug 11 at 6 P M when the Troop will have a Hot Dog Roast and meeting at Genesee Valley Park. At this meeting the plans for the bicycle hike, which is to take place during the latter part of the month will be drawn up.

During the summer evenings, the Troop has been up quite frequently at the Genesee Valley Swimming Pool. One result of these meetings at the Pool has been that the non-swimmers in the group have become interested in this sport and with the encouragement of Norman Huether, Scoutmaster they are now rapidly advancing as swimmers.

The week of July 12, the Scouts went camping at Camp Warren Cutler. They were under the leadership of Eugene Bear, the advancement man on the Troop Committee and Norman Huether Scoutmaster. Advancement for second and first class Scouts was in evidence every day. These groups were under the guidance of the Senior Scouts at the Camp. Some merit badges including Cooking, Camping, Pioneering and Bird Study were awarded.

The two Scouts who were elected to the Order of the Arrow the honorary Campers' Association.

were Kenneth Ritzenthaler, Frank Schwind and Ronald Tuschong. The other two members from Troop 213 in the Order are Francis St. John and Richard Erb.

ORCHESTRA PICNIC

Holy Family Orchestra will hold its summer get-together on Sunday Aug 9, in Summerville.

This Parish Orchestra which has already appeared six times under the direction of William Metzger, has been rehearsing every week during the summer months in preparation for the Patriotic Dance to be held early this fall.

COLLECTION SUNDAY

The collection for the Bishop's War Relief will be taken up this Sunday at all the Masses after the regular Sunday Parish collection.

COMMUNION SUNDAY

At the 8 o'clock Mass on Sunday Aug 9, the members of the Holy Name Society will receive Holy Communion in a body.

FIRST FRIDAY

The novena of nine First Fridays in honor of the Sacred Heart should not be broken or forgotten during the summer months. Confessions in preparation for the reception of Holy Communion will be heard on Thursday evening.

The Masses scheduled for Friday are at 6, 7, 7:45 and 8:15. In the evening there will be a Holy Hour at 7:30.

HONOR ROLL

Another honor roll for the Men of the Parish in the Armed Forces of our Country will soon be placed in the vestibule of the Church. Parishioners are asked to hand in all names and the branch of service of the men whose names have not already appeared on the other roll.

If Our Lord gives us a cross to bear remember He bore one for us long ago.
