

Camp Madonna Closes 'Most Successful Year' August 15

Although Camp Madonna will end the most successful year of its existence on Sunday, August 16 at 3 P. M., closing exercises will take place on Saturday, August 15. The day will begin with Mass celebrated by their chaplain, the Rev. Charles J. Mahoney at 8:30 A. M.

Invitations have been mailed to all campers who have been there at any time during the summer to return with their parents and friends to be a part of the program from 3 until 9 o'clock.

Planned for the afternoon will be swimming for all tournaments in all the land and swimming sports; a picnic supper at 5:30; a baseball game between parents and campers; a play out of doors by the campers; after which the final awards for the season will be made, closing with a goodnight circle of evening prayers, songs and taps.

With regret the children will part from the staff who have provided them with such excellent care and so much good fun during the short seven weeks of the season. Another year, if conditions permit, it is felt that an additional week should be added to the camp season to provide for children who were unable to come to Madonna this year for lack of room.

The camp has been the summer activity of the Catholic Women's Club for twenty years. Supervision and direction of it is in charge of the following committee of members: Mrs. Edward L. Zimmer, Mrs. Frank J. G. Connor, Mrs. Harry B. Crowley, Mrs. George W. Guerino, Mrs. Robert C. Hartman, Miss Lucy R. Sheridan, Mrs. Leo B. Simpson, Mrs. Louisa A. Whalen and Miss Alice F. Kirk, Chairman.

The staff in charge of program is under the direction of Miss Kathryn M. Gaffney of Boston, Mass. Assisting her as head counselor is Miss Rita V. Scott of the faculty of Nazareth College. In charge of various activities are: Miss Janet Fouts Warner, a graduate of Kenesaw Normal, the Misses Patricia Ann Doyle, Beverly Jones, Rosemary Tierney and Jean Schmitt, students of Nazareth College, and Patricia Wilson, post-graduate student at Charlotte High School. In charge of health is Miss Frances M. Wilber of St. Mary's Hospital.

During the season the following campers have been at Madonna for periods varying from a week to the entire season:

Marjorie Ann Antell, Beverly Ann Bartlett, Ingeborg Bohn, Dinah Branch, Molly Brown, Mary Jo and Peggy Cahill, Geraldine Callura, Ann Clark, Patricia Coleman, Mary Margaret and Rita Concannon, Frances Connelly, Nancy Carletta, Rosemary De Botta, Shirley Decker, Barbara Diringer, Mary Dixon, Margaret Mary Dole, Kathleen Donoghue, Helen Egan, Ann Eilers, Joan Elliott, Felicia Esser, Josephine Fava, Marietta Ferrero, Mary Frazer, Irene Gagnon, Dorothy and Joan Gargan, Patricia Gianforti, Margaretta Genna, Eileen Hanley, Joan Hest, Patricia Hiltner, Patricia Hausel, Barbara Humphrey, Florence Indelicato, Mary Lou Janlok, Erika John, Joan Judge, Eberline Keon, Mary Ann Klem, Rosemary Kramer, Marie Levesque, Claire Leonard, Lena Maggiline, Beverly Martell, Rosemary Martin, Leona Melsonahli, Luellen Melos, Joan Meyerling, Carol Ann Meyers, Nancy Myers, Margaret Mary Norton, Sheila O'Grady, Kathleen O'Mara, Gertina, Catherine and Josephina Picciotti, Barbara Philip, Doris Ropper, Jane Ann Rose, Ann Schafer, Joan Schonber, Patricia Ann Shapton, Jean Smith, Patricia Smith, Marilyn Spall, Irene Spogis, Betsy Stett, June Terrace, Marie Tomasco, Patricia Trickler, Carolyn Van Dame, Rita Vincent, Joan Walsh, Joyce Warney, Jean Webster, Jean Well, Germaine and Patricia Welch, Jean Williams, Suzanne Wilson, Mary Ann and Nancy Whitley, Suzanne Withey and Barbara Zimmer, all of Rochester.

Following the close of the regular season, the camp will be occupied by a group of young women of St. Jerome's Parish of East Rochester under the supervision of the Rev. John S. Whalen, and after Labor Day weekend a group of young people from Eastman Kodak office will enjoy the camp.

SOFTBALL Catholic League

By defeating Holy Family 3 to 2 last Sunday, the St. Francis softball team won the first half championship of the Catholic League.

Tests held the Holy Family team to four hits while his males poked out seven hits including a two-run homer by Roy Lorenzo in the second inning to provide the winner's margin of victory.

In the only other game of the day Holy Cross defeated Holy Redeemer 7 to 0. The scores: St. Francis 17 0 0 0 0 0 3 7 0, Holy Family 0 0 1 1 0 0 2 1 0. Tests and Practice: Rochester and Valrico.

Equal Rights Sought For Colored Baseball Players

BROOKLYN—Controversy having arisen over alleged discrimination against colored players being permitted to participate in the major organized baseball leagues, the Rev. Raymond J. Campion, pastor of St. Peter Claver's (Colored) Church here, has written to

L. S. MacPhail, president of the Brooklyn Baseball Club, expressing his desire to raise his voice in protest against any disabilities or inequalities which any participants might suffer.

"There is," Father Campion's letter reminded, "a strong and powerful movement on foot to obtain just treatment for colored people in all walks of life. One of the outstanding causes of complaint among colored people has been the fact that the major professional baseball leagues have not opened their ranks in recent years to colored players."

Replying to Father Campion, Mr. MacPhail wrote that while there is no rule of "understanding" in organized baseball barring colored players, any claim that Negro players have had opportunity to organized baseball is sheer hypocrisy.

Mr. MacPhail expressed the opinion, however, that there are few colored players who could qualify in the major leagues and asserted that if the qualified players were taken over by major and minor league clubs present Negro clubs would suffer and present colored leagues would be wrecked.

Father Campion countered with a proposal that a conference be held at which spokesmen of colored professional baseball teams would be given opportunity to be heard.

State Guard To Stage Stadium Sham Battle

All phases of modern warfare, with the exception of tank operations, will be dramatically demonstrated at Red Wing Stadium on the evening of August 27 by all units of the 21st Regiment, New York Guard, under command of Col. Fred E. Wegner.

The military program, to be staged in connection with a regular International League game between the Buffalo Bisons and the Red Wings, will open with a formal guard mount, to be followed by the sham battle, in which units from Corning, Genesee, Horse and Rochester will participate. A colorful military parade will conclude the program.

The military show and ball game will open a three-day stand of the Bisons at the Norton Street ball park. There will be a twilight-night double header on Friday, Aug. 28, and the series will conclude with one game on the following Saturday.

Arrangements for the stellar military attraction are being perfected by Colonel Wegner, Major Ray F. Fowler and Capt. William L. Weaver in cooperation with President Oliver French and his efficient Red Wing Organization. Before the Bisons come to town, the Wings will engage the fast

Montreal Royals here in a long series opening on Thursday, Aug. 12. A Knot Hole Gang game is scheduled for Saturday, Aug. 15. The series will end with one of those popular Sunday afternoon double headers on Sunday, Aug. 16.

Statistics show that 20 per cent more tires fail in July than in January due to heat and fast driving.
