Summer School in Chinatown

You guessed it! It's a summer school picture. In the heart of Chicago's Chinatown, little parishioners of St Therese's Mission open their books again in new seats in the City Hall school room. Regular grade schools are conducted in the morning by Sisters of Notre Dame and in the afternoon there are frolics in the park. Photo by Bob Kear. (N.C.W.C.)

Dean Urges Separate Pharmacy Units For Army and Navy Corps

BROOKLYN — Because of the important role played by pharmacists in the war effort and the varied responsibilities that are given those trained in pharmacy, Dr. John L. Dandreau, Dean of the College of Pharmacy of St. John's University has urged that a separate pharmacy corps be established as a distinct unit of the army and navy. Dr. Dandreau pointed out that the Government has already passed a law granting commissions to graduate pharmacists and that at the present time a bill is being introduced to permit ratings to Lieutenant Colonel.

"So important is the pharmacist in the war effort that Congress has recommended that study students in colleges of pharmacy be included with those of medical, dental and engineering college in the appropriation of funds so that they may continue their college studies." Dr. Dandreau stated. "Likewise, members of navy boards in Selective Service are recognizing the importance of the study of pharmacy."

Reported Slain In Hong Kong Battle

NEW YORK — Word has been received here that Brother Damien Peter Whalen, of St. Joseph's College, Hong Kong, was killed in the Hong Kong hostilities last December. He was one of the four Americans killed at that time there, it was stated.

Brother Damien, son of John Whalen, of Newark, N. J., went from the Baltimore Province of the Christian Brothers to teach in Manila six years ago. He served as Dean of the Commercial School at De La Salle College in Manila, before being transferred to Hong Kong.

Do not be misled into thinking that kindness is a little thing. Kindness is of the utmost importance in reaching the hearts and souls of sinners.

1,500 Soldiers Go To California Mission In Week

MISSION SAN MIGUEL, Calif. —As many as 1,500 soldiers from Camp Roberts, located near here, have visited this old California mission in one week and thousands have attended Mass before an altar beneath which lie buried the remains of the Franciscan founders of the mission and received Holy Communion at an altar rail fashioned by California Indians in 1797.

Let our Christian cheerfulness show itself in our treatment of those around us—in kindness, in consideration.

Pastor, Assistant Die Same Day In Camp

LONDON.—When the people of the town of Heerenberg, Holland, were informed that the pastor and the assistant pastor of the Catholic church in the village had died on the same day in a Nazi concentration camp, wonder was expressed as to whether their deaths were due to natural causes, a dispatch received here states.

The deaths of the pastor, the Rev. J. Galama, and the assistant pastor, the Rev. M. van Rooyen, occurred on June 30, the dispatch stated.

Our self-respect is largely due to the love we get in childhood and youth.
