

PARADE OF FUR FASH

Sable-dyed Muskrat, new 32-inch length with turn back cuffs and pockets—perfect for daytime as a casual coat, $157.00—at

B. FORMAN CO.
46 Clinton Ave. So.

A Sable-blend Muskrat, which matrons will find ideal for useful wear—at

SHAFFER COMPANY
51 East Ave.

A South American Ocelot straight line box coat used mostly for sportswear—at

WILLIAM V. CRASSER
30 Clinton Ave. No.

A sheared Alaskan coat with new rever with or without—at

BERNARD
66 E.

FURS FOR '42 are the theme of every woman's thinking in these days when both patriotism and feminine instinct suggest the advisability of selecting a garment for Winter wear that will combine warmth with style, thrift with investment value. And wise women look for shopping guidance in this field to the advertisements of furriers whose names connote expert knowledge and high integrity. (See pages 4-5-6-7-16 and 17).

Shop Through the Pages of the Catholic 