August FUR SALE!

Hero Honored

Wing Commander Brendan (Paddy) Flucane, 21-year-old ace of the British Royal Air Force, who lost his life when leading a mass air attack on enemy targets in France recently. Cardinal Hinsley, Archbishop of Westminster, presided at the Requiem Mass in Westminster Cathedral, (N.C.W.C.)

U. S. MISSIONER, MISTAKEN FOR JAP INVADER, ALMOST LOSES HIS LIFE IN CHINA

NEW YORK Mistaken identity came within an ace of costing a South China Maryknoller his life as a Japanese invader. The Rev. John T. Joyce, of Kew Gardens, N. Y. crossed by small boat from Sanctian Island to Toi Shan, a coast town, and was greeted by fire intended for an expected enemy invader.

"I stuck my chin out again," reports Father Joyce. "I left Sanctian for Father O'Neill's mission in Toi Shan. Toi Shan has been invaded twice and bombed much during the past few years and, sure enough, as we approached at night, the mainlanders, who were expecting an invasion that night, mistook us for a Japanese vessel. For half an hour it looked as if the pearly gates were opening before us. Luckily they had only rifles and we were able to hustle up the coast and make a landing.

"Next event was a change in my assignment to Tai Pant, a mission with a horse, so I'll be a wild west-erner for a while. We are all healthy here, mighty busy and praying for peace. I've been here four and a half years now and the war has been going on all that time. Love to all, pray for us."

The matter-of-factness of this communication has made a deep impression on the Joyce family, a member of which, Lieutenant Commander Birmingham, was lost recently when his ship, a U. S. destroyer, was sunk in the Orient.

About a year ago Father Joyce had another exciting experience when a Japanese soldier stood him against the wall of his church and shot at him because a gun had been found in the home of one of Father Joyce's Chinese soldiers. Following this incident, Father Joyce admitted that in momentary confusion, while awaiting the soldier's bullet he had said to himself the grace before meals rather than an act of contrition.

Missionary Magazine Revived In Spain

MADRID The missionary magazine Catolicismo, which disappeared five years ago, has come to life again.

During the civil war the offices of the publication were wrecked and its archives destroyed. Catolicismo concerns itself with articles about missionary activities, particularly events connected with the work of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.
