

St. Salome's Fete Opens

George Reiners has been appointed general chairman of the lawn festival at St. Salome's Church, to be held on the church grounds on Friday and Saturday evenings, August 21 and 22. He is being assisted by a large committee of fellow parishioners.

Revels and games will be included on the festival program for the interest and enjoyment of everyone present. A special program has been arranged for the children on Saturday afternoon from 1:30 to 3 p. m.

The Kitchen Committee, in charge of Mrs. Raymond Dornberger, will do its part in adding to the success of the affair by serving one of its famous fish fries on Friday evening, and a Virginia Baked Ham Dinner on Saturday. Serving will begin at 5:45 each evening.

Rev. Edward Rehrich, pastor of St. Salome's and honorary chairman of the festival, and Rev. Peter Jankowski, assistant, extend a cordial invitation to all. There will be free parking for everyone.

From the Middle Ages down to the 17th century the ability to hold a part in a domestic choral song was valued as an indispensable quality in a new maid.
