

Mass To Open Field Day For Auburn K. of C.

AUBURN—Rev. Gerard Amann will celebrate Mass on Sunday, August 23 at the chapel of the Columbian Squires on the east side of Owasco Lake and this solemn observance will open the festivities of the Knights of Columbus field day.

Chairman Charles Hawelke states that two more sport events have been added to the list of festivities. One is the tug of war and the other is the famous old Scot's contest of tossing the caber.

Through the cooperation of E. L. Damkroger, of the USO on Maui, Adam F. Ornelas, CYO general director, and Charles McBride, athletic director of the USO, arrangements have been made for a group of 20 CYO fighters to tour the island under the auspices of the USO.

Never forget to thank God daily for having made you a member of His undying Church, and grow daily in your attachment, devotion and loyalty to the Vicar of Christ.

Labor Issue Comes To Front In War Program

Neither has the attempt to hook up wage increases with the cost of living on a sliding scale arrangement, been very successful. The complaint is frequently made that under this plan the industrial worker is not expected to make any sacrifice by contributing to war production while the men who do the actual fighting are and the consumer feels the pinch. He cannot increase his income to offset increased prices.

It is doubtful that the Government will change its labor policies. One argument against it is that there is no need to change them. Labor on the whole, is doing a good job and the delays due to strikes are very few. But it is to be expected that, as the war goes on, there will be more "directives." There will be more regimentation not only for labor but for everybody. The worker will be assigned to his task and there is a bare possibility that as time goes on some sort of ceiling may be imposed on wages.

For example, the Senate has before it a bill which would authorize the Civil Service Commission to transfer government personnel from peacetime to war agencies, "with or without the consent of the employer." This is akin to the proposal to shift workers from gold mines to copper mines because copper is much more needed at the moment than gold. It is so badly needed, as a matter of fact, that the War Production Board has halted construction of fifteen partially completed farm projects of the Rural Electrification Administration. What is to be done about the workers on these projects is something else.

As the war production gets fully under way, the need for workers will become more pressing and the supply is not inexhaustible. Manpower may undergo a sort of rationing the War Production Board deciding what jobs are to come first and putting an end to the scramble on the part of employers for trained and skilled labor.

It all means that "regimentation" will increase as time goes on. It is probable, however, that no further steps will be taken until the elections are over. Congress is reluctant to approve any more restrictions than it can help upon the freedom of the people to do as they please until the votes are counted and show which way the wind of public sentiment is blowing.
