Present Everywhere
St. Francis de Sales says: "The workman loves not that his work should be despised in his presence. Now, God is present everywhere, and every person is His work."

MARY'S BEADS

There is one here that may have been used. And from its strings what harmonious strains! There is one more that may be used and say— A song that inspires when all sleeping lies. When on their beads our Mother's children pray. Immortal music charms the grateful child.

The clearest evidence of the Catholic Church are not those who show or speak of her, but those who try to stifle all mention of her.

Quotes Army Leaders On Religion

WASHINGTON — Representatives of their religious convictions by American Army leaders are quoted in the Circular Letter of Message, signed by William R. Arnold, Chief of Chaplains of the United States Army.

General Douglas MacArthur is quoted as saying: "The soldier, above all other men is required to perform the highest and most rigorous training—morally, in battle and in face of danger and death, to discipline those divine attributes which his Maker gave when He created man in His own image."

An unnamed General Officer is quoted as writing: "No man can effectively discharge the responsibility of leading our young men in this war without the guidance of Almighty God."
