Our pupils and reople have been called upon to make many sacrifices thus far. Before the conflict is over and victory is achieved, they may be asked or even forced by circumstances, to sacrifice far more. If so, they who have been sistant librarian and an instructor educated in the "Way of the Cross," in the Hinglish Dopartment. will accept it gladly.

I do not know of any Source of moral power other than that which comes from religion." Coolidge was right: there can be no morality without religion. Schools Renovated

To make possible a Christian education for boys and girls of this diocese Catholic schools have been built wherever possible. During the past weeks many of these schools have been renovated at a cost of thousands of dollars.

As effort has been made to provide the blessings of Education with religions to high school pupils as well as to those of the elementary school It is now for the parents to make the decision as to where their children will be sent for an education.

"The Cross and the flag," said General Douglas ManArthur, are embodiments of our ideals and teach us not only how to live, but also how to die." The Cross and dag adorn every Catholic school, keeping ever before papils the sublime two-fold objective: "For God and Country," religion and patriot-ism. This is education for total life.

Bird, local VAND Director said in appealing to these women to register without delay.

Mr. Bird explained that these women can meet the growing demand of armament workers by beginning training now and complet-ing the courses, making them oligible for war plant work by the time their husbands are inducted. This would eliminate hardships of seeking employment without skill and preparation later on. It would and preparation later on. It would serve two purposes, Mr. Bird point-ed cut. First, it would make the wives self-supporting, and second-ly, it opens opportunities to render positive assistance in the war pro-YPANA.
