

Youth Program Listed At Rural Life Meeting

PEORIA, Ill. (NC) — In addition to the full day's meeting which is planned for Rural Trainers and Leaders on Saturday, October 3, at the twentieth annual convention of the National Catholic Rural Life Conference, a special program has been arranged for youth.

Each parish of the Diocese of Peoria, as well as parishes of the surrounding territory, will send delegates to represent their youth organizations and societies. The day will start with the Missa Recitata at the Cathedral.

The Youth Group meetings will be held at the Academy of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart. Speakers and topics will be:

The Most Rev. Charles D. White, Bishop of Spokane, "The Dignity of Rural Inheritance"; Mrs. Albert Elsie, columnist and writer, of Blue Earth, Minn., "Queen in a Farm Home," and the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Luigi G. Ligutti, Executive Secretary of the National Catholic Rural Life Conference, "Land of Golden Opportunities."

In the afternoon, sectional discussion meetings will be conducted by youth and for youth. The following subjects will be treated: "Qualities of Future Husband and Wife"; "Company Keeping"; "The Youthful Catholic Lay Missionary"; "What kind of a Farm Do I Want," and "What is a Productive Home in City or Country." The young people will also be given an opportunity to become acquainted with the Catholic Worker move-

PARISH SCHOOL OPENING

By Miss Mary C. Brennan
OSWEGO — St. Patrick's Parochial School will open for Fall classes on Tuesday, September 8. This announcement was made by the Rev. Michael L. Hynes, pastor, at the Masses on Sunday. This arrangement is made to co-operate with the opening date of the public schools of the village and to meet the schedule of the pupils coming from the rural districts on the school buses.

Miss O'Neill Rites

The funeral of Miss Margaret O'Neill, a former well-known resident of this village was held this morning in St. Patrick's Church in Elmira in which city she had resided for the past few years. Burial was in St. Joseph's Cemetery in Owego. Miss O'Neill, who had spent her entire life, with the exception of the past ten years in this village was employed for many years as a clerk by several dry goods firms here. She had many friends and acquaintances here who deeply regret her death. She is survived by one sister, Miss Catherine O'Neill of Elmira and one niece, Mrs. Robert Kelly, also of Elmira. She was a member of the local branch of the L. O. E. A. and of the local Council of the Catholic Daughters of America.

The body was at the Luckner Funeral Home, Waverly, where services were held Wednesday at 9 a. m. and at St. James' Church, Waverly, at 9:30. The Rev. Edward J. Lyons, pastor, officiated. Burial was in St. James' Cemetery.

Let us impart all the blessings we possess, or ask for ourselves to the whole family of mankind.

They Watch for Planes

Meet the Chief Observer of Aircraft Warning Service Post 442, Rev. John J. Gaffney, pastor of St. Juliana's Church, Rock Lake, Pa. He is pictured ringing the siren preparatory to making a search. His assistant, Rev. John A. Babatsek, uses the microphone to gather information about an approaching plane. Some 25 men and women parishioners man the observation post erected on the parish grounds. ### Personal Debtor

It is recorded of Blessed Peter Fabre, S.J., the "sweet saint" of earnest gratitude, as Father Riewell writes him that he came to feel as if there was not a single corner of the Divine goodness closed to anyone for which he was not a personal debtor.
