They were seminarians from St. Bernard's Seminary in Rochester.

In the sanctuary were: Rev. William H. McPadden, Rev. Dr. Elmer McNamara, Rev. John Leary and Rev. Raymond Nolan. Burial was in St. Patrick's Cemetery.

Letters to Jack

BY THE MOST REV. FRANCIS CLEMENT KELLEY

UNRIVALED wisdom and understanding turned upon a young man's problems, rewritten and reprinted in a tenth edition for a new generation, this true classic of intimate counsel has found readers far beyond the limits of the group to which it is addressed.

"Bishop Kelley's letters are not pious moralizings; they are sensible and attractive comments on all aspects of life from the viewpoint of a Catholic gentleman. This book is not written for altar boys or pious young men as such—but for normal young fellows facing life with an open mind.

"This is a religious book which you can put into the hands of any boy of high school or college age without fear or apology."

A Catholic Training

We ask our readers to give a Catholic Education to poor children. Ten Dollars will enable a child to attend a mission school for a year. Help our missionaries to keep open their mission schools. Sponsor a child for a year.

SCHOOL DAYS

Most people can recall with joy school days. They were happy days; they were important days.

This is especially true, if we attended a Catholic School. For there we learned of Our Blessed Lord, the truths and practices of our holy faith were taught us.

Now, more than ever, is there a need for Catholic Schools where Christ and His life, and His commandments are taught to the youth.

This is particularly true in the Near East, where there are so many influences to draw souls away from Our Lord. Yet, even non-Catholic educators and men of thought are convinced that the root of many evils in the world today is godless education, resulting in ignorance of God, of Our Blessed Redeemer and His laws of Justice and Charity.

No greater blessing could you give to the poor children of our missions, than an opportunity to attend a Catholic school. A mission school can be built for $500. The success of a mission school is guaranteed by a mission work.

Will you give our poor children a chance to learn about God and the true purpose of life, by building a Catholic School in the Near East Missions?

Your charity would win for you the grateful prayers of hundreds of children and their parents of all priests and sisters of the Near East Missions—yes, the blessing of God Himself.

GREGORIAN MASSES

The offering of Mass for thirty consecutive days for a deceased person. Religious orders have the Gregorian Masses offered for a deceased member. You can do so for a deceased relative or friend, and even for yourself after your death. Write for our free leaflet.

FOR ONE CHAPEL

Some of our Near East chapels are very bare. The people are too poor to provide even the necessities. Yet every mission priest wants his chapel furnished suitably as God's House. You can delight a missionary pastor by giving to his chapel a Chalice, Missal, Set of Linens, Candlesticks and Altar Crucifix for Forty-two Dollars.

ALL CAN HELP

Every Catholic wishes to aid the missions. One very helpful way is to share the work of training young men to become missionary priests. You can do this by joining our Student Support Club. Members send a Dollar a month, or Twelve Dollars for a year.

It costs a Hundred Dollars a year for each student in the major seminary. The course is six years.

PICTURE OF OUR LADY

Our Blessed Mother is loved in the lands where she died. You can give to a mission school a picture of Our Lady of Fatima for Five Dollars. It will increase devotion to Our Lady.

HARD LIFE

The life of a missionary is very difficult. Away from home and friends he endures the trials of loneliness. Different food, climate and living conditions take toll of physical health. To these he is resigned, for he expects them. But his great trial is lack of funds to do the good he wants to do. We cannot change the climate or affect his lonely life, but we can help support him and free him of financial cares. Five Dollars will support a missionary for nearly a week. Give this happiness to a missionary.

CENSER AND BOAT

The Censer and Boat are used at High Mass and at Benediction. This gift you can give to a mission chapel for Eight Dollars. Many of our chapels are without a censer or boat.

SPIRITUAL BENEFITS

All our members living and deceased, share in the works of our missionaries and in the Forty Masses offered every day for them. Individual membership is One Dollar a year, family membership, Five Dollars per year.

BOYS IN SERVICE

Ask our missionaries to offer Holy Mass for the physical and spiritual welfare of our armed forces. Pray God's grace and care for them.
