Legion Presents Flag To Mercy Hospital

AUBURN — Fitting ceremonies marked the presentation of American flags to City and Mercy Hospitals on Sunday afternoon. The flags and steel staffs were the gifts of W. Mynderson Rice Post, American Legion of which John J. McMan is the commander and who was head of the committee in charge.

The address at Mercy Hospital was given by Rev. John B. Crowley, pastor of St. Aloysius Church. He said "We of the present generation cannot rest on the valor and patriotism of those who have gone before. Our flag demands patriotism, loyalty, sacrifice and devotion of each generation. Without God there can be no real American democracy. God is the author of American liberty, and faith in God is indispensable for American life and democracy."

The presentation was made by Charles M. Sullivan, second commander of Rice Post and the acceptance was made by Very Rev. Dean John A. Conway, pastor of Holy Family Church, for Sister Huberta, hospital superintendent. The flag ceremony was in charge of Joseph S. Parkas and Herbert Lee Davis, sergeant of the Color Guard of Rice Post. The buglers were Charles Westover, Leland Derby and Roy Harold. The Bugle
