

Successful Clambake
Closes Summer Season
For Auburn K. of C.

AUBURN—The Knights of Columbus closed the summer season with one of the most successful clambakes in the history of the organization.

Rev. Gerard Amann, chaplain of the K. of C., celebrated Mass in the chapel of the Columbian Squares and the chapel was crowded with the Knights who filed into the chapel under the leadership of Grand Knight George B. Shannon.

Father Amann delivered the offering in which he urged the men to give thanks to Almighty God for the benefits they had received. If the people would only pray for aid and assistance, God would not forsake us and our nation would surely emerge victorious in the present conflict, he told the men. Following the Mass breakfast was served in the refectory of the Squares camp.

Sports Program Enjoyed

The clambake team defeated Art Flannelly's team by a score of 15 to 12. The game was very close but Clapay Hoy got a three bagger driving in two runs and winning the game for the Tamburo team. Bill Dempsey was the pitcher for the winners and John Hyland did the catching. Ed Secaur was the pitcher for the losers and Jack Eracino, the catcher.

Henry Tamburo was the umpire on balls and strikes and Phil Conboy on base.

In the semi-finals of the horseshoe pitching, Dr. Paul J. Nolan defeated Ed Secaur and Tony Conroy, but year's champ defeated Herbert Anderson. In the final Joe Conroy retained his title. The egg tossing contest was won by Joe O'Donnell and William Conway and the tug of war was fought between the teams of Fire Captain Bernard Rooney and John Hyland and Jack Proino. Captain Rooney's team was victorious.

The dinner was served at 3 o'clock under the direction of General Chairman Charles Hawelka. Then the second feature of the day was presented when the oldtimers led by John J. Leo and the newtimers led by Bill Bouley fought for eleven innings before John Leo's team defeated Bouley's team by a score of three to two. Rev. Gerard Amann was pitcher for the oldtimers and John Foster was catcher.

For the newtimers Rev. Gregory Dugan, parish chaplain, did the pitching and Babe McGee the catching. Dr. Michael Conboy, native Auburnian and now of Buffalo, and County Clerk James D. Shaylor were the umpires.

CIVIC GROUP HONORS NUN
FOR WORKS OF CHARITY

BIGOTA—The Rev. Mother Margarita Fonseca received by unanimous decision the Gonzalo Jimenez de Quesada award of the Society for Civic Betterment, here, in recognition of her 20 years work in behalf of the underprivileged classes. The decoration was conferred by the wife of the President at a ceremony held in the Quintade Bolivar.

Mother Margarita in 1918, founded what was then called the Charity Association but later became a religious congregation, the Servants of the Holy Family. The original purpose of the organization was the rehabilitation of destitute women, but the work of the congregation has been extended to care of youth, the establishment of farm colonies, refectories for workers, maternity homes and training schools.

Three absent-minded professors were so absorbed in conversation that they didn't hear the train come in nor hear the conductor's "All aboard" call until the puff of the engine attracted them. Then they all rushed for the train, and two of them scrambled on it. The third looked on sheepishly. The agent, standing nearby, said, "Too bad, mister, but you shouldn't feel so badly. Two out of three made it—that's a pretty good percentage." "Yes," said the professor, "but they came down to see me off."

STUDENT HONORS PRECEPTOR

The Right Rev. Msgr. John A. Ryan, Director of the Social Action Department, N. C. W. C., guided the academic footsteps of the Rev. Jerome L. Toner, O. S. B. (right), of St. Martin's College, Olympia, Wash., when the latter was at the Catholic University of America. Father Toner is shown presenting the Monsignor with a special copy of his book, "The Closed Shop," which he has dedicated to Monsignor Ryan. (N.C.W.C.)

Armed Services Call Many Youths From Auburn

Miss Agnes Walsh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Walsh of 12 Cayuga Street, is among the group of registered nurses who have arrived at San Juan, Puerto Rico to administer to the sick among the U. S. Army in that area. Miss Walsh is a graduate of St. Alphonsus School and the East High School of Auburn and of the School of Nursing of St. Joseph's Hospital, Elmira, N. Y. She was a member of the staff of Good Shepherd Hospital, Syracuse, until she signed up as a U. S. Army nurse. She has been stationed at Pine Camp until her appointment to Puerto Rico.

Private Thomas I. Whelan who is stationed at Fort Knox, Kentucky is spending his furlough in Auburn.

Private William Shaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shaw of 18 Anna Street, is now at an overseas destination according to a cablegram received by his parents.

Raymond Scollin, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Scollin of Saranac Lake, native Auburnian, has been with the U. S. Marines for over twelve years. The War Dept. has just announced his promotion to the rank of lieutenant-colonel. Mr. and Mrs. George Scollin formerly lived at 132 Osborne Street and Mr. Scollin was employed by the International Harvester Company. Raymond Scollin is a graduate of St. Mary's Parochial School, Auburn, and of the Auburn High School. He is a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Scollin of Auburn.

Dominic Pettigrass of 218 Seymour Street is now a private first class at Key Field, Miss. Pettigrass is a member of the 30th Base Headquarters and Air Base Squadron.

Clarence B. Donahue, son of Dennis L. Donahue, 42 Fitch Avenue, graduated from the U. S. Naval Air Station, Corpus Christi, Texas. He was commissioned an ensign in the United States Naval Reserve. Donahue volunteered for navy flight training in October 1941. After receiving basic flight instruction at the Naval Reserve Aviation Base, Kansas City, Kansas, he was then transferred to Corpus Christi. He received a thorough instruction in flying the navy's fighting planes, and has completed all types of ground school courses, including those in navigation and radio code to recognition of friendly and enemy aircraft.

Donahue is a graduate of Holy Family High School and attended Michigan State College, East Lansing, Michigan.

Ensign Frank A. Shea, U. S. N. son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. Shea of 231 Seymour Street was among the graduates at the commencement of the U. S. Naval Training School, Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass. Shea is a graduate of St. Alphonsus School, Auburn East High School and received his degree from Syracuse University in 1941. While at East High School he was a leading athlete and a member of the varsity football team. While a student at Syracuse University, Shea was president and founder of the Cayuga Club, president of the Holy Name Society of St. Thomas More, treasurer of the Junior Class, member of the Men's Student Government, steward and member of Phi Kappa Tau, national social fraternity and a member of the varsity soccer team. Since graduation, he has been employed as administrative assistant of the Farm Security Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. He is a member of the Washington Chapter of the Society for the Advancement of Management, national professional society.

Corp. Anthony DiVietro returned to Fort Knox, Kentucky on Sunday after spending his furlough with his mother. Corporal DiVietro has a brother Dan, stationed at Fort Totten, N. J. in the Seventh Coast Artillery whom he visited before coming to Auburn and has another brother, Claude, who is in the Medical Training Center at O'Reilly General Hospital at Springfield, Missouri.

Confere 210 Degrees
Chicago DePaul University conferred 133 degrees at the closing of the summer session. The Very Rev. Msgr. Reynold Hilgenbrand, Rector of St. Mary of the Lake Seminary, delivered the commencement address.

At Loyola University's summer commencement here today, 77 degrees were conferred. Dr. Paul Kinifery, assistant dean of the Graduate School, delivered the commencement address.

Send your scrap metal to Ber-

Quigley Named To Post In Department of Commerce

AUBURN—Edward T. Quigley, a native of Auburn, a graduate of St. Mary's School and a boyhood friend of the Rev. Dr. William E. Cowen, pastor, has been named assistant solicitor for the Department of Commerce, succeeding James J. O'Hara, retired. Mr. Quigley entered the service of the Department of Commerce and Labor in 1904 and was appointed chief clerk of the Solicitor's Office in 1908. He was promoted to be assistant solicitor in 1911 and served in that position until 1920 when he resigned to enter private practice of law in the service of the Department of Washington. He was recalled to the service of the Department of Commerce in 1932 as senior attorney and assistant to the solicitor. Mr. Quigley was secretary of the American-Canadian Fisheries Conference in 1918; he represented the Department of Commerce at an International Conference held in Bern, Switzerland in 1930 in connection with the formulation of a convention on international air law. Mr. Quigley is a graduate of Auburn High School where he made an outstanding record as a football player and later played with Auburn's old Four A's of the noseguard days. He was graduated from Georgetown University Law School, Washington, D. C., and is a member of the bar of that city and has been a member of the National Press Club for many years. He was a reporter on the old Auburn Bulletin before going to Washington. Mr. Quigley is a frequent visitor in Auburn and has many relatives in the city.

Geneva NCCW To Map
USO Cooperation

GENEVA—Preliminary plans for the Fall and Winter season were outlined at the first Fall meeting of the Geneva of the National Council of Catholic Women, which was held on Monday evening at De Sales High School Library.

At subsequent meetings, the members will map a plan of activities and discuss further cooperation in the civilian defense and USO program.

Friends Fete Geneva
Girls Leaving City

GENEVA—Classmates and friends entertained at a formal dinner-dance Thursday evening at the Geneva Lake Country Club in honor of Miss Betty Dunn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dunn of West Avenue and Miss Rita Frolich daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Frolich of William Street.

Miss Dunn is planning to enter Iowa State College and Miss Frolich is moving with her family to Chicago, Illinois where her father is employed by the American Can Company.

There were about forty guests present at the event. The club was beautifully decorated with baskets and bouquets of late summer flowers. Miss Dunn and Miss Frolich were presented corsages of roses.

Benedictines Open
New Boys' School

WASHINGTON—The Benedictine Fathers of St. Anselm's Priory here will open a new boys' high school next September, according to an announcement just made.

The school, which will be located on the priory grounds, will be conducted "along the lines of Benedictine tradition in secondary education." It is stated that the classes will be small and the curriculum integrated, featuring individual instruction supervised study, educational, vocational and religious guidance, and physical training. Admission will be on the basis of examination.

The headmaster will be Dom Austin McNamee, O.S.B.

Entertain Youngsters
On Son's Birthday

GENEVA—Mrs. George Fulton of 30 John Street entertained several youngsters at her home recently in honor of the second birthday of her son Robert William.

The children enjoyed a program of games and were photographed after which a birthday supper was served. The table was centered with a large birthday cake with two candles. Favors were colored balloons.

The little guest of honor received several birthday gifts.

Those present were Anne, Mary, John and Ruth Brennan; Howard and Barbara Crowthers; Diane, Jean and Johnny Treadwell; Michael Donahue, Jackie Wittwer, Cathie Moore, Howard Blood, Mary Catherine and Thomas Patrick DeVaney, Billy DeVaney, Betty and June Walsh and Robert William Fulton.

Arizona became a Territory of the Confederacy before it was made a Territory of the United States.

Funeral Rites of the Week in Auburn

St. Mary's

Despite the efforts of physicians, Merritt Alouse Derby, 14, son of Frank A. Derby of 30 Chapman Avenue died at Mercy Hospital on Monday afternoon. Death was attributed to septicemia. An exploratory operation performed Monday revealed an abscess back of the muscles of the chest. The boy was taken to the hospital on Thursday after suffering a shoulder injury in a fall. He developed a high fever which was believed might have been connected with the abscess which apparently came from some other cause than the fall.

Merritt Derby was born in Auburn. His mother died a few years ago. He is survived by his father, two brothers, Harry Edward Derby and Willis Leroy Derby and a sister Dolores Esther Derby.

The funeral was held on Thursday morning with services at St. Mary's Church. Rev. Richard T. Torney sang a requiem high Mass and the burial service was read by Father Torney assisted by Rev. Dr. W. E. Cowen, pastor. Burial was in St. Joseph's Cemetery where the service was conducted by Father Torney assisted by Rev. Joseph McNamara. Bearers were Robert Stokes, Eugene Richardson, David McCloid, Merritt Fletcher, James Dale and Joseph

St. Alphonsus

Mrs. Margaret Mullaney Bunnell, wife of Wesley W. Bunnell died early Sunday morning at Mercy Hospital. Mrs. Bunnell was taken ill Sunday morning and was rushed to Mercy Hospital where she died shortly after her admittance. She was a communicant of St. Alphonsus Church and a member of the Rosary Society of that parish. She is survived by her husband, Wesley W. Bunnell a retired Auburn policeman, one daughter, Miss Maude Bunnell of New York City, one son, Homer Bunnell of Skaneateles and one sister, Mrs. Kathryn Ryan of Syracuse, and six grandchildren. Funeral services were held on Wednesday morning at St. Alphonsus Church. The services at the home were conducted by Father Straub pastor of St. Alphonsus and the high Mass of requiem was sung by Rev. Ralph F. Neagle of Elmira, a native Auburnian. In the sanctuary were Rev. Gerard Gefell, Rev. John Merklinger, assistants at St. Alphonsus and Rev. Frederick G. Straub, pastor. Burial was in Soule Cemetery where the committal service was conducted by Father Neagle assisted by Fathers Straub, Gefell, Merklinger, and Rev. Gerard Amann, also an assistant at St. Alphonsus. Bearers were George Bishop, Thomas Lawler, Harold Osborne, Howard Morgan, Charles