To All Socialists Of Rochester . . .

Miss Dorothy Willmann of The Queen's Work Staff will conduct an institute at SS. Peter and Paul School Hall on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, September 28, 29 and 30.

The institute, as planned, will aim toward instructing and inspiring Socialists for future activities. Since army Socialists either elect or appoint officers and committee chairmen at the first fall meeting, it is urgent that the first meeting take place some time previous to the institute. This will enable the entire council to participate and again join the routine of Sodality work.

Niagara Meets War Needs; Stresses Training of Women

Niagara University, Rochester Division continues with its war accelerated program of studies enabling the day student to graduate with a college degree in 2 1/2 years, and the evening student in 3 1/2 years. It also offers its students the commission opportunity provided by the Army Enlisted Reserve, the V-1 and V-2 of the Navy. Special courses in the Economics of War and Current War Problems have been added, and the curricula in Accounting and Finance have been coordinated with the demands of the war program.

For women, courses in typing and stenography together with Accounting, Finance and kindred subjects offer splendid opportunities to women to prepare themselves to take over the positions of men who have been called to the Service.

Men and women with college degrees are important in furthering our war efforts and will find themselves at an economic advantage in the days of readjustment that follow the war.

The fall term in day and evening opens Monday, Sept. 21. For further information call the Registrar Main 1124.

Postoffice Rules On Christmas Mail Going To Members of Armed Forces Abroad

Arrangements have been made by the Post Office Department in cooperation with the War and Navy Departments for the acceptance of Christmas parcels for members of our armed forces serving outside the continental United States. In order that such parcels may reach the addressees on time and in good condition, Postmaster Donald A. Dailey has issued the following guide:

Time of Mailing—Christmas parcels and Christmas cards should be mailed during the period beginning October 1 and ending November 1, 1942—the earlier the better. Each gift parcel should be endorsed "Christmas Parcel."

Size and Weight—Shipping space is urgently needed. Therefore, Christmas parcels shall not exceed 11 pounds in weight or 18 inches in length or 4 1/2 inches in length and girth combined. The public is asked to cooperate by voluntarily restricting the size of such parcels to that of an ordinary shoe box and the weight to 8 pounds. The members of the armed forces are amply supplied with food and clothing and mailers are urged to not include such items in gift parcels. Not more than one Christmas parcel or package will be accepted for mailing in any one week when sent by or on behalf of the same person or concern to or for the same addressee.

Preparation—Owing to the great distance this mail must be transported and the handling and any storage it must undergo, it is absolutely necessary that all articles be packed in substantial boxes or containers and be covered with wrappers of sufficient strength to resist the pressure of other mail that may be piled thereon in long transit. Furthermore, as each parcel is subject to censorship, delay in handling may be minimized by securing the covering of the parcel so that the contents may be readily inspected. Combination packages such as miscellaneous toilet articles, hard candies, soaps, etc., should be tightly packed, in order that the several articles may not be loosened in transit, damaging the contents of the parcel itself or causing damage to the cover of the parcel. Christmas boxes should be enclosed in substantial containers. Candies in thin pasteboard boxes should be enclosed in wood, metal, or corrugated pasteboard. Sealed packages of candy, cigars, tobacco and toilet articles in simplified mercantile form may be enclosed within parcels without affecting the parcel post classification of such packages. Sharp-pointed or sharp-edged instruments, such as razors, knives, etc., must have their points or edges protected so that they cannot cut through their coverings and damage other mail or injure postal employees.

Perishable Matter—No perishable matter should be included in any parcels.

Prohibited Articles—Inflammable materials (including matches of all kinds and lighter fluids) and poisons, or compositions which may kill or injure another, or damage the mails, are unmailable.

How To Address Parcels—Addressee must be legible. Parcels addressed to overseas Army personnel should show, in addition to the name and address of the sender, the name, rank, Army serial number, branch of service, organization, A. P. O. number of the addressee and the post office through which the parcels are to be routed, as, for instance, "c/o Postmaster, New York, New York."

Parcels for Navy personnel should show, in addition to the name and address of the sender, the name, rank or rating of the addressee and the naval unit to which the parcels are to be routed, as, for instance, "c/o Postmaster, New York, New York." Parcels for members of the Marine Corps should show the rank or rating, full name and U. S. M. C., U. S. Marine Corps Unit No. (insert appropriate number); c/o Postmaster, New York, New York, or San Francisco, California (as instructed by correspondent) for any Marine Corps Unit located overseas. Units located within the continental United States may be addressed direct, using name, rank, organization and location.

Postage—Postage must be fully prepaid, the rate on parcels of fourth-class matter (that is, parcels exceeding 4 ounces) being the zone rate applicable from the post office where mailed to the post office in care of which the parcels are addressed. The third-class rate of 1 1/2 cents for each two ounces applies to packages not exceeding 4 ounces, except in the case of books, on which the rate is 1 cent for each 2 ounces.

Permissible Additions—In addition to the name and address of the sender, which is required, inscriptions such as "Merry Christmas," "Please do not open until Christmas," and the like, may be placed on the covering of the parcel in such manner as to not interfere with the address, or on a card enclosed therewith. Books may bear simple dedicatory inscriptions not of a nature of personal correspondence.

Insurance and Registry Services—Mailers are advised to insure their gifts of more than ordinary value. Articles of considerable value, especially those of small size, should be sealed and sent first class registered mail.

Use of Money Orders—It is recommended that postal money orders be used to transmit gifts of money to members of the armed forces outside the continental United States. With regard to cash remittances, at many places where such forces are stationed there is a local prohibition against the importation of United States money, and it could not be used if received. However, domestic postal money orders can be cashed at A.P.O.'s wherever they are located, and they are paid in local foreign currency at the rate of exchange in effect on the date the orders are presented.

Keep 'Physically Fit'

The "Keeping Physically Fit" program is gaining much headway under the guidance of the Adult Physical Fitness and Recreation Association sponsored by the Board of Education Health and Physical Department. Activities open to those employees who desire programs of recreation and physical endeavor include the Industrial Morning Softball League, under the able leadership of Norman Ulp, eight teams comprising the membership. Capable leaders guide calisthenics apparatus, tumbling, basketball, fencing, bicycling, rhythmic exercise, horseshoe pitching, tennis, archery and other recreational games. These activities are for those who find it good sense to learn to play and keep physically fit.

Among the various sports celebrities who give instructions are Phil Michlin, tennis and badminton; Carl Steinfeld, horseshoes; Jack Martin, archery; Vic Holland, handball; Ted Mosher, table tennis; and others who are specialists in their respective fields of endeavor.

The various personnel managers of industries are actively represented on the Executive Committee, and who are giving their support to this undertaking to keep a physically fit America. It is the sound logic of the association that a physically fit American public is the road to victory and eventual peace.

The Adult Physical Fitness and Recreation Association program anticipates making greater strides than those already accomplished. With gasless days in the offing, enjoyment will have to be found nearer home. Therefore, choose your sport or hobby and invite friends along. The program is open to all, no need to hold back because you don't play well enough. Desire and sincerity are the essential requirements.

All are urged to make the most of their inclinations and natural talents by joining and participating in some active group. Those interested are requested to contact any of the officers or call the Department of Health and Physical Education, Board of Education at Main 2000. Equipment and facilities are supplied by the Board of Education at the following high schools: Monroe, Madison, Jefferson, Franklin, Charlotte and Marshall. Games have a social effect, and participation in any form of activity helps to keep one mentally alert. Safeguard your life and liberty by being physically fit.
