ROSARY SOCIETY MEETS

By MARY E. CAUFIELD
 Members of the Rosary Society of St. Monica's held their first meeting of the fall season on Wednesday evening, Sept. 15, in the parish hall. Mrs. Ivo Hoffman, president of the organization, presided at the business meeting which was followed by a social hour.

SODALITY CHOIR
 The Young Ladies' Sodality Choir

met for rehearsal on Thursday evening, September 17, in the music room. Anyone interested in joining this group is asked to contact Sister Anna Louise, or to attend the next meeting on Thursday, September 24.

The 11 o'clock Mass on Sunday will continue to be a Low Mass until further notice.

The women of the parish are invited to do Red Cross work in the parish hall either on Tuesday afternoon or on Friday evening.

SODALITY NAMES SLATE

The Young Ladies' Sodality held their annual elections. The officers selected to guide the members this year are the Misses Helen Melnik, president; Katherine Shacak, vice-president; Angela Brazis, secretary, and Viola Heilina, treasurer. The best of wishes go with these leaders for a successful year.

The newest endeavor of the Young Ladies' Sodality is the grouping of the Sodality into sections. Then each section is given a certain number of names and addresses of the men of St. George's Church in the service. These girls will see to it that these boys will be remembered with a letter regularly. At intervals, the names for each section are passed on to some other group of Sodality for the purpose of variety. Great enthusiasm for this type of work was manifested when it was suggested, and then so readily adopted.

At this meeting also, an impromptu collection was taken up to help the Sodality's adopted missionary, the Rev. John Rottman of New Orleans, La. The generosity of the young ladies was surprising and more than their quota was tabulated.

For various undertakings and the like, the following Sodality volunteers for liaison service and accepted the post of captain: Carolyn Rovas, Isabelle Jokas, Elizabeth Apton, Theresa Apton, Julia Baluke, Virginia Daugillie and Anne Kurmia.

RELIGION CLASSES

Religious instructions for the public high school pupils will start Monday afternoon, Sept. 21. Every student who signed last year is again expected, as well as the pupils who are entering school this year. We urge the parents to do their part to see that their children take advantage of this opportunity. Those pupils who have not signed up for the class as yet are asked to obtain a parent request blank either from the school or the priests.

SERVICE ROLL

A reminder to our parishioners: Please hand in the full name, rank and the branch of service of the men and women serving our nation. We urge especially those whose sons and daughters have been enrolled recently.

Cites New Restrictions On Overseas Air-Mail

The War and Navy Departments exercise control over the transportation of air mail to overseas destinations. "Reports received during the past few weeks show conclusively that the volume of air mail now being received for transmission to certain points outside the continental United States is greatly exceeding and will continue greatly to exceed the facilities that are or can be made available for that purpose," states Postmaster Donald A. Dailey. "Therefore, it becomes necessary to materially reduce the weight of individual pieces of air mail so that the transportation by air of the greatest possible number of letters to those areas may be assured."

The existing military demands upon air-transportation facilities for strategic cargo and for personnel essential to the war effort have made necessary the immediate establishment of the following order of preference in the loading of mail on aircraft destined for restricted areas:

First—Official air mail.
 Second—V-mail.
 Third—To the extent space is available, other letter mail weighing not in excess of 2 ounces per letter.

CATHOLIC GROUPS WELCOME AMERICANS IN AUSTRALIA

MELBOURNE. — The Catholic Welfare Organization in Victoria, South and West Australia, and the Catholic United Services Auxiliary in New South Wales and Queensland have opened their "huts" to members of the American armed forces in Australia.

There is a large hut, rest room and canteen conducted by the CWO behind the century-old Church of St. Francis in Melbourne. This church is in charge of the Fathers of the Blessed Sacrament from the American Province of the community. Ten of the priests are from the United States and three from Canada.
