

RELATIVES GET WORD FROM BATAAN

While in Salinas, Cal. following their return from the Philippines, several United States Army nurses went to the USO Club operated by the National Catholic Community Service, to give whatever word they could to relatives concerning members of the Salinas Tank Battalion that served on Bataan. The nurses spent more than an hour going over photographs brought by relatives of the soldiers, and were able to give reassuring word to a considerable number of the home folk. Shown here examining photographs of the soldiers are Lieut. Juanita Redmond of Waco, S. C., and Lieut. Eunice Hatchet of San Antonio, Tex. (N.C.W.C.)

Soldier Sends Plea For Chaplain

NEW YORK — A touching plea for additional Catholic chaplains for the Armed Forces, addressed to the Most Rev. Francis J. Spellman, Military Vicar, was today received by the Military Ordinariate. "I am a Catholic soldier in the U. S. Army, and I am now located at a certain camp in Florida," the writer states. "The reason for this letter is that I would like to know in behalf of the many other Catholics in this camp if it would be possible to have a Catholic chaplain here. Speaking for myself and many other Catholic soldiers, we sure would like to have one, so that we could have evening services like other camps. For instance, the Nurses of Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal and the Holy Heart Nurses, and friendly conversations with our Catholic chaplain. We sure do miss that loving feeling of safety and security given by conversation with a Catholic chaplain.
