

Dansville Boy's Poster Honored

DANSVILLE—Thomas Ryan, sixth-grade pupil of St. Mary's School, Dansville, N. Y., whose poster won first prize in the local American Legion poster contest, and first prize in the Livingston County contest last June, has been awarded honorable mention in the New York State contest which closed a short time ago. First prize in the State contest was won by an entrant from New York City.

Butyl rubber was developed by Standard Oil Company (S.O.) in 1937, but research and development work looking toward its improvement have been going on ever since.

Enlists In Navy

Ray M. Louis, M.A.—Father Joseph P. Garrity, S.V.D., of St. Augustine's Seminary here, has reported at the Chaplains School, Norfolk, Va., under commission as a Navy chaplain. He is a native of Roxbury, Mass., and his brother, the Rev. James A. Garrity, is assistant at St. Charles Church, Woburn, Mass.

ST. ANDREW'S PARISH

SODALITY ELECTS SLATE

Members of the Young Ladies Sodality of St. Andrew's parish held their first meeting of the fall season on Monday evening, Sept. 14. The new officers elected for the coming year are: Prefect, Gloria Bossert; Vice Prefect, Elaine Kolesnik; Corresponding Secretary, Jeanne Schneider; Recording Secretary, Joan Galen; Treasurer, Mary Matile.

The Young People's Club is, at present, raising funds to equip the Club. The members are also planning to purchase a new repeating record player. Plans for both of these functions, together with many other suggestions, were included in the discussion at the Sodality Business Meeting.

COMMUNION SUNDAY

The Young Ladies of the Parish and the Junior Holy Name Society will receive Holy Communion on Sunday, September 20, at the 9 o'clock Mass. A large turnout is expected.

ENTER RELIGION

Ralph Carpenter, a member of the Holy Name Society of St. Andrew's Church, has decided to enter the Order of Brothers, known as the Missionaries of the Sacred Heart, located at Geneva, Illinois. Mr. Carpenter was known by everyone in St. Andrew's parish. He wishes to thank the people for their kindness and consideration to him during his stay in the parish. We wish him every success and happiness in the new work he is about to undertake.

BOY SCOUTS

Members of the Boy Scouts of Troop No. 70 have started to plan their activities for the coming year. All members are requested to attend all meetings regularly in uniform. Because of the importance that is attached to the wearing of the Scout uniform, the Troop committee and the Leaders of Troop No. 70 have decided not to admit to the Scout meetings any boy not in uniform. With only one or two exceptions, all the boys have uniforms. Therefore, they are expected to wear them to the meetings which begin promptly at 7:30 p. m. Parents are asked to encourage their sons to advance in rank, since a troop is judged by the advancement shown by the scouts. Members of the Troop Committee are as follows:

Scoutmaster John H. Fredmore; Chairman William Deussen; Rev. Raymond Wuest, George Hibbard, J. Oliver Beuchman, John Lavel, Sam Cluffe, Xavier DuPlessis, assistant scoutmasters; John Goddard, Wilbur G. Bartle, Robert Glasgow (Sea Scouts), Joseph G. Cesarone, Donald Whiting (Sea Scouts), and William J. Dixon.

We hope the parents will accept our invitation to attend any of the meetings of Troop No. 70 on Wednesday evenings at 7:30 o'clock in St. Andrew's Hall.

WANTED

Men, women and children to become daily communicants. Part time. Easy chance to make good money for heaven. No previous experience necessary. Only requirements: state of grace and right intention. Bountiful dividends paid promptly at each reception. Start tomorrow!

Most Sublime

The Mass is the highest and most sublime act of worship, the sublime sacrifice in which God offers to God a Victim—God and you who are present join in the offering, and reap the inestimable benefits of the sacrifice of Calvary.
