

K. C. To Join Civic Celebration of America's Discovery

Paying tribute to Christopher Columbus on the 450th anniversary of the discovery of America, a civic celebration will be held at the Chamber of Commerce. Rochester Knights of Columbus will join in honoring the patron of their order.

Principal speaker and guest of honor will be His Excellency, Bishop Kearney, State Chaplain of the Knights of Columbus.

Sponsoring the affair which will be a dinner at the chamber on Monday, Oct. 12, at 6.30 P. M. are the Italian Civic League, the Knights of Columbus and the Chamber of Commerce.

Representing the K. of C. on the committee arranging the affair are: Grand Knight Thomas H. O'Connor, Trustees, and Past Grand Knight Joseph P. Flynn and Advocate Christopher D'Amanda. Resolutions for the Knights of Columbus attending the dinner are being made with Secretary Thomas C. McCarthy, K. of C. Clubroom, Main 1402.

A patriotic program interspersed with musical numbers will precede the Bishop's address. General chairman of the celebration is Edwin Allen Stebbins.

Plans for participation in the Columbus Day observance will be outlined at the Council meeting, Thursday, Oct. 1. Entertainment at the meeting will be in charge of John T. Moore and John Tennerman of the 1942 Third Degree Class.

Rochester Boys Enter Trinitarian Community

One Rochester youth from St. Patrick's parish has entered upon his novitiate and another from Old St. Mary's parish has begun his preliminary training for the Holy Priesthood in the Missionary Servants of the Most Holy Trinity, Holy Trinity, Ala.

The former Carl A. Nanni, now Brother Paulinus, M.S.S.T., son of Dominic Nanni, 107 Frankfort St., and of the late Margaret Laurin Nanni, became a member of the Missionary Servants of the Most Holy Trinity, Catholic home missions, on Sept. 7, when he received the habit of the congregation and entered upon a year of training in the Holy Ghost Novitiate, in Alabama.

Edward S. Conway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis H. Conway, 62 Savannah St., has begun his studies for the missionary priesthood at St. Joseph's Preparatory Seminary conducted by the Congregation.

Brother Paulinus Nanni attended St. Patrick's and St. Anthony's parochial school in Rochester and Aquinas Institute for three years. He will be a missionary Brother in the community, which has its mother house and Southern headquarters on a 1,300-acre plantation just across the Chattahoochee River from Fort Benning, Ga.

Mr. Conway is a graduate of Canisius College and has been a member of Old St. Mary's parish. After completion of his preliminary studies at Holy Trinity, he will be formally received as a member of the Missionary Servants congregation of home missionaries and serve a year as a Novice. This period of strict religious training, which begins when the candidate becomes a Brother, is followed by six years of training at the congregation's House of Studies in Silver Spring, Md., after which he is ready for ordination to the priesthood.

The Missionary Servants of the Most Holy Trinity were established in 1820 by the late Father Thomas A. Judge, C.M., M.S.S.T., who had formerly been active in the Rochester diocese as a member of the Vincentian mission band. The community now numbers more than a hundred priests and Brothers and has mission stations in many parts of the South and East. Its members work among Negroes and sharecroppers in the South and among fishermen and seamen on the Gulf of Mexico.

Mo. Cabrini Honored

Chicago—The Rev. Luigi Giambastiani, O.S.M., pastor of St. Philip Beniti's Church, who pioneered in the efforts to have better housing for families of his parish, offered the prayer at the opening of the Frances Cabrini Homes, first Chicago housing project for war workers. The homes were named for Blessed Mother Cabrini, who, while in Chicago, worked for better homes for the poor.

We promise according to our hopes and act according to our fears.

Church Debt Paid In Full, Fr. Gabbani Announces

By Maryrose Barron

AUBURN—Father Adolph Gabbani of St. Francis Church, Auburn, certainly had good news for his parishioners on Sunday, Sept. 20, when he announced that the Church Debt had been paid in full.

Father Gabbani came to St. Francis Church over seven years ago. At that time the debt was $10,000. In this relatively short time he has paid not only the current expenses, but has also paid the Church Debt and the people of St. Francis know now that a fund in the name of the church has already been started.

A committee was formed over a year ago for the purpose of wiping out the debt. It was the duty of the members of this committee, all of whom were Holy Name Men, to go to the homes of the parishioners and receive their contributions. The success of the campaign can be seen from the fact that about $170 a fund that is expected to grow more than was required has been given by the people.

This surplus is the beginning of considerably.

The campaign came to an end Thursday, September 24 when a banquet formally closed the drive. The following were at the head of

Novena Opens At 'French Church'

With the prayer-intention for "Country, Army and Peace in Victory" a novena in honor of St. Teresa and St. Jude opened Sept. 23 at Our Lady of Victory Church, 10 Pleasant St.

The Novena will be continued until Sept. 30, announces the Rev. C. A. Van der Meulen, pastor. Services are held in the morning, at noon and in the evening during the Novena.

What we'd like to see is one big appropriation to handle the German subs. Sort of a sinking fund.
