COURIER'S CURRENT CINEMA COMMENTS

By JONAS BRYNICKER (Continued from Page 10)

Newsberg are undoubtedly pretty unhappy about their assignments. Noted in Passing. I've seldom had a more thrilling experience in the theater than I had this spring when I saw 'Fergy and Ben' in New York.

John Springer discussed the proposed, 'Campion,' the Alfred Hitchcock melodrama which starred Cary Grant and Joan Fontaine, on Your Movie over WHAY, Monday morning at 3:05.

Third Order Of St. Francis

The Third Order of St. Francis will prepare for the feast of their Patron Saint by holding a Triduum opening at 8 o'clock on the evening of Friday, Oct. 2, and closing on Sunday, Oct. 4.

National Legion of Decency List

Table listing objectionable films under three categories: CLASS A - Section 1, CLASS A - Section 2, and CLASS B - Objectionable in Part. Includes titles like 'A Night with You', 'The Man Who Shot Liberty Bells', etc.

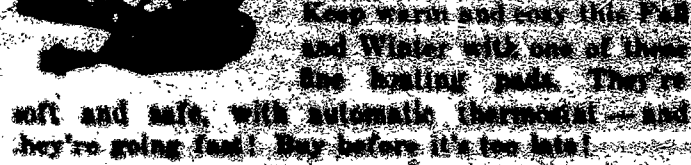

JOHN F. MEAHLE, chairman of New York State Chapter of Columbus Council's special committee on Annals of the school.

Those who are making the service privately should begin on Sept. 28 and may include the Triduum as a fitting conclusion.

The Triduum will furnish an excellent opportunity for those who are interested in the Third Order to find out something about it.
