(By Fred Beuerlein)

MT. MORRIS. — Mrs. Adeline Costello, 80, widow of John Costello, a lifelong member of St. Patrick's parish, died Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 22, at the family home in Chapel St., after an illness of several months.

Mrs. Costello was born in this village, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Schirmer, and Mt. Morris has been her home all her life. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. John L. Davis; several nephews and nieces.

Funeral Mass and services were held Friday morning, Sept. 25, at St. Patrick's Church with burial in St. Patrick's Cemetery.

Open Physical Fitness Program

Acting under the State War Council, the Adult Physical Fitness and Recreation Association is formulating plans for leisure time programs, for the benefit of the industrial workers and civilians during the fall and winter, under the sponsorship of the Health and Physical Education Department of the Board of Education.

Six schools will be open, Franklin, Madison, Marshall, Charlotte, Jefferson and Monroe, Monday through Thursday, 6:30-9:30 P. M., to accommodate those who feel that physical fitness and recreation is as necessary as work to the war effort. Physical fitness help people to keep fit and alert, acts as a builder of morale and a defense against war hysteria.

Two sports which will get underway the first week in October are table tennis and soccer. The former under the leadership of Ted Mosher, has ten industrial teams, all set for the league opener, Oct. 7. Jim Campbell, president of the Western New York Soccer Association, expects to open his Sunday soccer league, with an eight industrial team circuit, Oct. 4.

Air Raid Wardens and other protective units, in addition to defense workers and civilians are urged to enroll at a neighborhood school, and make it a habit to participate twice weekly in this total war preparedness.

Taylor Instrument will hold a plant night at Madison High School, Wednesday, Oct. 7, to inaugurate the first of such nights to be conducted by other plants.

The greatest of all thoughts — God.
