

'SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND' is U. S. Army Chaplain, Father Edwin W. Andrews C.P., formerly of the Passionist Monastery at Dunkirk celebrating Evening Mass. With their "week day" over, Catholic troops took to evening Mass, hence the variety of coats and jackets pictured here. Forty-two men received Holy Communion on this occasion, the Feast of the Assumption. They had fasted since noon. (INCWC photo).

URGES PEACE PRAYERS

By Dolores E. Harrahan
An appeal was made at all Masses last Sunday by the Rev. Andrew T. Dissett for an increase in devotion in the parish as an appeal to God for a just peace. Father Dissett reminded parishioners that prayer and sacrifice were their duties to the boys of St. Ann's serving in the armed forces.

An ideal way to appeal to God for peace and the safety of the men in service is attendance at daily Mass, Father Dissett pointed out. He also urged parishioners to attend the public recitation of the Rosary, held each evening at 7:30 o'clock and the Novena services in honor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help each Thursday at 3:45 and 7:45 o'clock.

Father Dissett reminded parish-

Bill Would Protect Young Workers

BUENOS AIRES. Vanguardia Obrera Católica, junior branch of the Catholic Labor Circle here, has sent to the President of the Chamber of Deputies, Dr. José Luis Cantillo, a suggested bill which would afford further protection to workers under 18. The draft proposes restrictions and regulations, particularly with respect to apprentices, that would assure the future welfare of the worker and the stability of his future home.

tioners of the excellent opportunity to invoke special blessings by whole-hearted attendance at the Mission which begins October 15 in St. Ann's Church. The Mission will be conducted by the Very Rev. John Healey, O. P., P. G. and by the Rev. James Kearney, O. P., of the Dominican Order.

Serve-McAllister

Miss Bertha McAllister, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. F. McAllister of Hornell and James V. Serve, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Serve of Batavia were married October 1 at St. Ann's Church. The Rev. Andrew T. Dissett officiated.

Attendants were Mrs. Lurton Whiteman, sister of the bride, and Kenneth Serve, brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Serve, who is a member of the faculty of Batavia High School, was graduated from Mercyhurst College. Mr. Serve was graduated from Buffalo University Law School, attended Niagara University and is now an attorney in Batavia. Mr. and Mrs. Serve will reside in Batavia.

Corning Deaths

Mrs. Mary Tansy Kneeland, 61 W. Fourth St., died at the Corning Hospital after a lengthy illness on Monday, Oct. 5, about 2 a. m. Mrs. Kneeland was born in Ireland about 78 years ago and came to this country as a young girl. She married John Kneeland at St. Mary's Church in Corning about 52 years ago. Mr. Kneeland died in 1906.

Survivors are a son, William Kneeland, 163 W. Third St.; a sister, Mrs. John Hill, Chicago, Ill.; six grandchildren, Francis, William Jr., and Donald Kneeland and the Misses Evelyn, Marjorie and Patricia Fleming all of Corning. Mrs. Kneeland made her home with her granddaughters and her son-in-law, Gerald Fleming.

The funeral was held Wednesday morning from the late home at 8:30 o'clock and at 9 o'clock at St. Mary's Church. Burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Nicholas Senkules, 127 Hillvue Ave., died at the Corning Hospital, Saturday, Oct. 3, at 12:10 a. m. following a long illness. He had been admitted to the hospital on Oct. 1. He was born in Corning and spent his entire life there. On Sept. 10, 1932, he married Miss Helen Gale, who survives. He was supervisor of the tool room at the Corning Glass Works and was a member of St. Vincent de Paul's Church.

Besides his wife Mr. Senkules is survived by one son, Nicholas Jr., two daughters, Theresa Ann and Roslyn Marie, his mother, Mrs. Nancy Senkules; three brothers, Michael, Peter and Frank, all of Corning; one sister, Miss Susan Senkules, Corning.

Funeral services were held from the late home Tuesday at 8:30 a. m. and at 9 o'clock at St. Patrick's Church, due to the fact that the Forty Hours Devotions are in progress at St. Vincent de Paul's Church. Burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery.

PAINT HALL INTERIOR

CORNING — As part of the redecoration project in progress at St. Vincent de Paul's Church and School members of the Parish met at the Church Hall Thursday evening to paint the interior of the hall.

School rooms were painted and desks refinished before school opened in September. Other improvements include a new sidewalk in front of the church and new entrance steps, provided by brought from railings.

Because of the increased enrollment in the school it has been necessary to have one class meet in the Boy Scout meeting place on the church property.

Forty Hours Held

The Forty-Hours Devotions were held at St. Vincent de Paul's Church, beginning Sunday, Oct. 4, after the 11 a. m. High Mass and ending Tuesday evening.

Masses were celebrated at 7:30, 8:15 and 9 a. m. on Monday and Tuesday and evening services were at 7:30 p. m.

On Sunday evening the Rev. Edward T. Dissett, assistant pastor of St. Peter's and Paul's Church, 30-32nd Ave. the services. He was followed by the Rev. Francis Ferguson, assistant pastor of St. Patrick's Church, 11th St., Monday evening. The Rev. William T. Linn, assistant pastor of St. Patrick's Church, Corning, on Tuesday evening.

The Rev. Joseph V. Gradede, pastor of St. Vincent's and the Rev. Joseph P. McCarthy, assistant pastor.
