Fr. Randall Named To Courier Staff

Appointment by His Excellency, the Most Rev. James E. Kearney, president of the CATHOLIC COURIER, of the Rev. John S. Randall as managing editor to succeed the Rev. Leo C. Mooney, pastor of St. Patrick's Church, is announced today.

Due to pressure of parish duties, Father Mooney found it impossible to continue in his capacity on the diocesan newspaper and submitted his resignation in that office. He has faithfully served in that capacity since the reorganization of the diocesan organ in 1933 and during that time had a large part in the development and progress of the paper.

Father Randall is the diocesan director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith and will continue in that office. He succeeded Father Mooney in that office on Feb. 7, 1933.

The staff of the CATHOLIC COURIER now consists of the Rt. Rev. Msgr. William M. Hart, V.G., editor-in-chief; the Rev. John S. Randall, managing editor; Howard W. Klippert, manager; Thomas H. O'Connor, news editor; Elmer G. Gropensteter, circulation manager; and Miss Eunice Schneider, office manager.
