

Educator Played Baseball Before Becoming Jesuit

NEW ORLEANS.—"Cardinal" before present is the record of the Rev. Donald A. Carter, R.J. who has been appointed student counselor and chairman of the department of religion at Loyola University of the South.

A resident of New Orleans, he attended Spring Hill College, but interrupted his studies to enter the army in World War I. As a pitcher on the Spring Hill team he led the team to a scholastic league championship. He left professional baseball to study law at Loyola but a year later entered the novitiate of the Society of Jesus.

ST. PATRICK'S, Owego

CITE RED CROSS AID

OWEGO.—The women of St. Patrick's Parish have been busy engaged during the past several months sewing and knitting for the American Red Cross.

Mrs. David J. Reihan, chairman of the production for the parish, has announced the spring and summer quota has been filled and the following number of articles have been completed: Twenty girls' woolen skirts, 16 children's flannel-ette pajamas, 7 men's pajamas, 11 girls' woolen dresses, 8 children's snow suits, 18 children's flannel-ette bathrobes, 1 infant's pocket, 2 infant's caps, 6 women's sweaters, 3 men's sweaters, 29 children's sweaters and 10 children's beanies.

Mrs. Thomas O'Connell was in charge of the planning and cutting of the material for the different articles and due to her expert management more articles were made from the material furnished than was originally called for.

The quota for the fall and winter allotment has been released and the ladies of the parish meet one afternoon at the Red Cross rooms on Front St. to work on the articles asked for.

Hear Msgr. Sheen

A large number of members of the Parish were in Binghamton on Saturday evening to hear the lecture given by Msgr. Fulton J. Sheen. The lecture which was sponsored by the Catholic Daughters of America of Binghamton, was given in the Central High School auditorium and it was attended by a capacity audience.

Killed In Action

Word has been received by Mrs. James O'Neil of 110 1/2 Providence St. Waverly that her brother Sgt. Neil Champoux, 21, was killed in action in the South Pacific.

Sergeant Champoux was a member of the U. S. Marine Corps and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wellington E. Field of Canandaigua.

Attribute Malta's Long Resistance To Prayer By Former Governor

LONDON.—Malta's long resistance against overwhelming Axis odds was attributed directly to the force of prayer by Sir William Dobbie, former Governor of the island in a radio address.

During the two years of the siege, said General Dobbie, I was very conscious of the good hand of God upon us. I am sure that the continued safety of Malta was ultimately due to His divine protection.

General Dobbie who held nightly Bible classes on bomb-scarred Malta, is sure that he is not alone in his conviction.

"Many others share it with me," he said, "and we are glad to acknowledge it humbly and thank fully."

"I am convinced that God does still answer prayer. I believe that recognition of this fact was the secret of the spirit, endurance and

School of Nursing

Honolulu.—The School of Nursing at St. Francis Hospital has been solemnly blessed by the Most Rev. James J. Sweeney, Bishop of Honolulu, and in his words it will, in conjunction with the hospital as a whole, "through the years to come minister to all the people of these islands."

A Patriotic Auto Plate

Combining the religious and the patriotic, Lucinda Sibbald Conry (above), art student at the College of St. Rose, Albany, N. Y. has designed this attractive plaque to be used on the front of automobiles. With a "V" running through the center of the plate, it carries the inscription, "Our Lady of Victory Pray for US." The color scheme is red, white and blue. Photo courtesy The Evangelist (N.C.W.C.)
