JUBILEE REPORT NEARS $11,000 AS CAMPAIGN ENDS

Last Tuesday evening marked the final report meeting for the Jubilee Campaign agents, and their returns for that week brought the total of cash payments on pledges to the sum of $10,800. This remarkable response to the Jubilee appeal has made possible the many improvements in the Parish buildings that are now nearing completion.

Installation on the new $7,800 organ has been completed the interior of the church has been completely renovated, the exterior of the church, rectory and heating plant will soon be finished. All of this was preceded by the installation of kneeling pads of the finest quality early in the Summer. Thus the material end of the observance of the seventy-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Parish has been well taken care of by its present congregation.

The week of Nov. 8 will bring the improvement events of the spiritual program. The first three days of that week will be given over to a retreat program in the morning and afternoon for the school children. The evenings will be for the young men and women. Special retreat exercises will be conducted in the evenings for the Parish young people. The last three evenings of the week will be for the Parish adults. All retreat exercises will be conducted by the Passionist Missionary, Father Athanasius Burke.

On Sunday Nov. 15, His Excellency Bishop Kearney will celebrate a Solemn Pontifical Mass, bringing to a fitting close the week of spiritual exercises.

There were few dull moments in the Theatre Guild's first offering which came in the form of "The Milky Way" on last Sunday and Monday evenings.

Playing to a well filled hall on each evening, the cast made the most of their many opportunities for laughter as they unfolded the story of Burleigh Sullivan and his harrowing experiences as a prize fighter.

Clarence Flass in the role of the pugilistic milk man shared top honors with Larry McVinnie, who as Spider, the trainer gave the audience a character portrayal that was perfect even to the haircut. Dom Bruno, Bob Schapp, Gertrude Cornelius and Evelyn Fallost carried the main supporting roles in excellent fashion. Don Aman and Bill Miller contributed the finishing touches as a reporter and Social Lion respectively.

The cast was under the direction of Wilford Scott, who was assisted in its presentation by Joseph Stocklein, Bruno Gruss, Al Catalano, Raymond Placius, Virginia Minoa, Mary Lou Bopp, Mrs. William Miller, William Powers, Richard Sturmer, Sylvester Engler, Mrs. Lawrence McVinnie, Mrs. William Powers, Alma Powers, Amelia Weber, Ruth Warner, Mary Alexander, June Healy, Julia Taylor, and Helen Weber.
