

Catholic Pupils Win Community Chest Essay Contest Prizes

AUBURN—Winners in the prize essay contest sponsored by the Auburn Community Chest Campaign are announced by the judges in the contest, the Rev. Gerald Amann, assistant pastor of St. Alphonsus Church, and Dwight Van Avery, supervisor of English at West High School.

The contestants were divided into two groups, one from Senior High and the other from the Junior High Grades in Public and Parochial Schools.

The essays of students in the seventh grades of the various schools compared favorably with those submitted by students in the higher grades. Neither the names of the contestants nor the schools

HARVEST FESTIVAL TICKETS DISTRIBUTED

The preliminary sale of tickets for the annual Harvest Festival began this week with the distribution of the tickets through the school children. A large sale of these tickets is anticipated because of the interest already evident in this annual event. Every family is urged to cooperate as the success of the festival depends entirely upon the cooperation and help of all.

A meeting to organize the Workers' Committee will be held this week. Special emphasis will be given the Turkey Booth, which should be an attractive feature for all. A special surprise awaits those who attend the festival, which will be held on Saturday and Monday evenings, Nov. 21 and 22.

First Friday Next Week: Masses on Friday will be at 6:00, 7:00 and 8:00. Confessions on Thursday afternoon and evening. The Eucharistic Holy Hour will begin on Thursday evening at 7:30.

Roary Society: Members will meet on Monday evening after the Novena services. The society will receive Holy Communion in a body at the 8:00 Mass this Sunday.

Blanket Club: Mrs. Richard Henry of Parsons Ave.

Few Next Quarter Begins: Few-holders are asked to take care of their present this week as the new quarter begins on Nov. 2.

All Souls' Day: Masses on All Souls' Day will be at 8:30, 7:00 and a Solemn High Mass at 8:00. Our people are urged to take advantage of the Tolle Quoties plenary indulgence granted at this time.

Debt Collection This Sunday: Our monthly Parish Collection to relieve our parish debt will be taken up at all the Masses this Sunday.

Tuesday NMA Parties: Every Tuesday evening at 8:30 in our parish hall. The large crowds continue to attend and we invite our parishioners and friends to come over to our hall and enjoy an evening of entertainment at these parties. Admission 50c at the door. Four bus lines stopping in front of our hall make it convenient for all.

MEN'S CLUB CAMPAIGN

By MARGARET MILES

The annual St. Boniface Men's Club drive is now underway, and will continue until Nov. 2. With so many present club members now in the Service of our Country, it is the aim of the drive chairman to gain a large new membership during this campaign. Both the young men and the older men are invited to join.

The Club offers bowling on four fine, modern alleys, ping-pong and pool. There is a newly redecorated club lounge for the convenience of the men, which is equipped with a radio and card tables.

On Sunday, Nov. 2, from 2 until 6 P. M., the Club will hold open house and cordially invites the men of the parish to attend and acquaint themselves with the facilities of the clubrooms. Refreshments will be served.

Rev. Francis Taylor is Honorary Chairman of the drive, William Baker is Chairman and the Associate Chairmen are John Kreckel, William Weider and Ed. Sloan. Captains are Milton Schaefer, James Volmer, Leonard Haidt.

AUXILIARY MEETS

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Knights of St. John will hold their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday evening, Nov. 2. The ceremony of installation of officers will take place, followed by refreshments.

FRIDAY NIGHT PARTIES

Remember the Friday Night Parish Parties in the school hall. They begin at 8 o'clock and, in addition to doing your bit for the Church, you can spend an enjoyable and profitable evening. Come and bring your friends.

Victory Foods

Every newspaper and magazine you pick up today, every publication of food market and packing plant stresses "Victory Foods." Do you know what "Victory Foods" are? Do you know the economical cuts of meat to serve in your home? Do you know how to keep up the minimum caloric and vitamin demands of your family in spite of food prices and rationing restrictions?

As never before in this country, housewives now must be prepared to use economical cuts of meat and to prepare leftover meals for the members of their household. Scientific planning is of paramount importance and common sense buying is imperative. With a view toward the situation at the present and the emergency situation we face in the immediate future, the Red Cross has prepared classes in Nutrition, covering all new discoveries about food needs and food values, improvement of diet at all income levels, embracing food demonstrations, exhibits and field trips.

You cannot afford to neglect to train yourself in Nutrition now—ment longer. Nutrition courses will be given by the Red Cross morning, noon, and evening, and you may register for Nutrition classes at a time convenient to
