ST. MONICA'S PARISH

RED CROSS MEETINGS

By MARY E. CAUFIELD
 The women of St. Monica's are once again invited to attend the Red Cross meetings which are held every Tuesday afternoon and Friday evening in the parish hall. The only change in the time of these meetings occurs during the week of the First Friday. The meetings are held on Thursday, then of that week, instead of Friday.

SERVICE HONOR ROLL
 Attention is once again called to the Service Honor Roll, a copy of which has been placed in the back of the Church. Approximately 30 names were added during the last week, thus bringing the total number of St. Monica's parishioners in their country's service up to 307.

SODALITY SUGGESTIONS

Along with the first Sunday of November is the opportunity for all the Sodality girls to demonstrate their devotion and love for the Blessed Virgin Mary. For this reason, along with the secondary intention for the departed souls, all the Sodality members are urged to manifest the individual interpretation of these sublime intentions in their monthly reception of Holy Communion.

Those young ladies who have not yet sent their quota of letters for the men in the armed forces during the month of October are asked to finish their assignment as quickly as possible to maintain a 100% standard, not forgetting what a letter does for a sailor or a soldier separated from home.

In the blanket club this week the Rev. John Baksys and Wanda Kern of 281 Berlin St. If there are any others who wish to join this blanket or merchandise club, there is still the opportunity by calling the rectory the convent or speaking with any of the Sodality members.

ENJOY WINTER SOCIAL.
 The first winter season social took place last Sunday at St. George's parish. A successful parish supper was sponsored by the Parish Committee headed by the pastor the Rev. John Baksys. The untiring and ceaseless efforts of all the committee members produced the excellent result, i. e., not an empty chair in the entire hall. The pastor with the committee members wish to thank sincerely everyone who helped.

After the supper, an entertaining but short program was well received by the diners. The following contributed their share in the Mr. and Mrs. John Sedlickas, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jurien, Miss Mary Pikunas, Miss Isabelle Revas and Miss Carolyn Rovna.

Before the assemblage dispersed, one of the parishioners, Mr. George Savago, suggested that a hurried collection be taken up for amoken for the boys serving the nation from our parish. A sum of $33.02 was contributed for this purpose.

LET THEM MARCH IN MARY'S CARE!
 The pupils of St. George's School harkened to the plea, "Will you refuse the least that assures most their salvation?" It is not easy for our service men to walk through fire and to come out unscathed. It is not easy to fight in a war of destruction and to wear the mantle of God's grace. But Mary promised, to those who wear the Brown Scapular "Whoever Die Clothed in This Shall Not Suffer Eternal Fire. Therefore an overnight "Scapular March of Dimas" was sponsored. One hundred seventy dimas rolled in. Now, five hundred and ten more American Service men will soon be marching and fighting under Mary's Banner, marked as Her "chosen ones!"

May every Catholic, in the defense of the democracy that we love, receive the Scapular and be Mary's child!

To strengthen the morale of our armed forces, every pupil of the Seventh and Eighth Grades wrote letters to our men in the service.

Insurance Broker
 C. Emmett Hayes located at 614 East Main St. announces that the State Insurance Department has issued to him an independent license to broker insurance covering all lines.

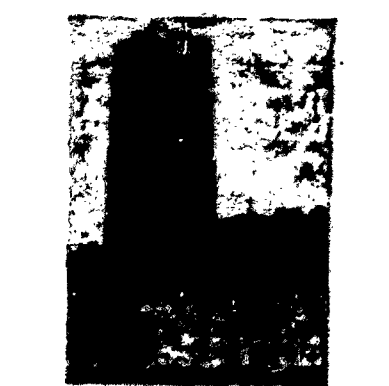

Defense Plant Foreman: Hurry up there.
 Worker: O. K., boss, keep your shirt on. Rome wasn't built in a day.
 Defense Plant Foreman: Maybe not; I wasn't foreman on that job.

Since Sunday will be the Feast of All Saints, Masses will follow the regular Sunday schedule: 6:30, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12:15 o'clock.

The Feast of All Souls will be celebrated on Monday, Nov. 2. The people of the parish are urged to attend at least one of the Masses on that day for the Holy Souls in Purgatory. The time of the Masses will be announced on Sunday.
