Rochester Diocesan Council N. C. C. W. 536 Columbus Civic Centre

In listing recent renewals of National Diocesan affiliations, Rochester Catholic Charities should have had an honored place.

We also acknowledge the renewal of Diocesan affiliation of the Women's Association of St. Cecilia's Parish, Elmira.

The N. C. C. W. Card Party at Edwards Auditorium on Tuesday afternoon Oct. 27 under the Chairmanship of Mrs. Rosemary Cronan was a most enjoyable affair.

Due to transportation difficulties, we will hold no Diocesan Convention this year.

The Fall meeting of the Board of Directors of the Rochester Diocesan Council of the N. C. C. W. will be held in Rochester, N. Y., on Saturday Nov. 21, at 10:15 A. M. at the Hotel Seneca.

All are urged to attend the Mass at 9 o'clock at St. Mary's Church, South St., to be celebrated by our Bishop, the Most Rev. James E. Kearney, D.D.

Following the Directors Meeting, a luncheon at 12:30 open to all, will be held in the Ballroom of the Seneca. Bishop Kearney will be the guest speaker at the luncheon.

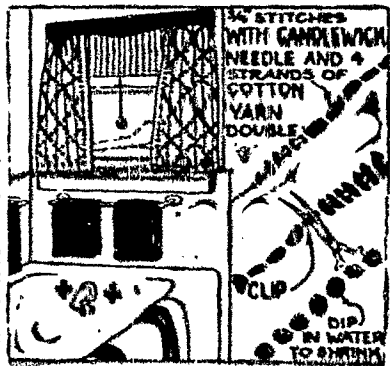

The afternoon meeting, which will immediately follow the luncheon, is open to all who wish to attend, whether or not they belong to affiliated societies, and will serve as a follow-up meeting to the July Conference on Cooperating with Catholic Charities, held in Auburn, Elmira, Geneva and Rochester.

Tickets for the luncheon are $1.00 and may be procured from Miss Cecelia Yawman, Diocesan President, Monroe 7187. Mrs. M. H. Keogh, Rochester Deanery President, Monroe 3413-J, or from the other Deanery Presidents.

Bathroom Color With Candle-wicking

Bright blue is the color keynote in this bathroom. Blue is used for towels and bath mat stripes and for a painted box cornice. The curtains are of coarse white muslin tufted with old-fashioned candle-wicking.

dwelicking in bright blue. It is difficult to find appropriate curtains that will stand steam and moisture so you may want to copy these in your favorite color.

Cut the curtains the length and width desired with ample allowance for shrinkage and baste the hems in. Next place the material flat on a table and mark diagonal lines on the goods with a yardstick and pencil, spacing the lines four inches apart to form the plaid pattern. Now, thread a tufting needle with four strands of candle-wick yarn, and work along these ruled lines using the thread double, as at the upper right. Also, sew the hem in this manner, then clip the stitches, as shown at lower right and dip in water. Spread out smooth to dry but do not iron. Finish the tops with a rod casing.

NEXT WEEK: Patchwork Kitchen Curtains NOTE: It is easy to give all your windows a professional finish with box cornices, and they prevent light from showing at the top, in a blackout. Pattern 207 which gives directions for making cornices will be mailed for 10c. Address: Mrs. Spears, Drawer 133, Bedford Hills, New York.-(Copyright)

The way we see it, the war is going to be won with bullets, not bulletins.

At the 'Army War Show

Hundreds of youngsters and their teachers, from St. Elizabeth's and Our Mother of Sorrows schools, Louisville, were among the thousands who viewed the great Army War Show during its nation wide tour. In this picture, some of the Ursuline nuns examine a radio device at the Signal Corps exhibit. Popular also was the Chaplains Corps display featured at the show. (N.C.W.C.)

Chaplains' Needs Furnish Project of Nazareth Group

By Doris A. Dunlap

The Sodality Committees are planning an extensive program for the month of November. These Committees include the Marion, the Eucharistic, the Catholic Truth, the Social Life and the Publicity.

Mary Jane Schwartz in charge of the Marion Committee reports that the main interest this year will be the Chaplains' Project which consists in working in coordination with the Chaplains' Aid Association, which will inform the committee of the Chaplains' needs. The work will include sewing on purifiers for army chaplains and other simple duties.

The purpose of the Eucharistic Committee is to study the Liturgy and to live the Mass, putting it into practice in daily life.

The primary purpose of the Catholic Truth Committee is to review Catholic books in the meetings and to make reports on them.

A Sodality Discussion is held by each class every two weeks to discuss contemporary problems. At present the Seniors are discussing the W.A.A.S. and the W.A.V.E.S. Another current topic is "What a Catholic Girl Should Contribute to Her Parish."

SOPH HOP NOV. 13 The girls of Nazareth College are looking forward to the annual Soph Hop to be held Nov. 13 in the Nazareth College auditorium. Jenn Flannigan, class president, is honorary chairman, and Pat O'Grady and Daisy Welch are co-chairmen.

Co-chairmen of the Date Bureau are Jean Schantz and Betty Hall. Orchestra co-chairmen are Carolyn Rovas and Joan Dugan. Beverly Jones and Doris Dierdorf are co-chairmen of the decorations.

Erica Kleimens and Rita Piekunka are in charge of invitations. Co-chairmen of the clean-up committee are M. F. Kummer and Tony Luraschi.

Janet Meisenzahl and Honey Meisenzahl are co-chairmen of the Recreation committee.

Checking will be in charge of Jean Foley and Dorothy Reddington.

Sociology Speaker Mr. Robert Mulford of the S. P. C. C. was guest speaker at the first Sociology Club meeting of the year on Tuesday, Nov. 3. The meeting was held in the Social Room of the College. Mr. Mulford's topic was "Current Problems in Child Welfare."

A series of speakers has been engaged for future meetings of the group. Named Chairman At the annual meeting of the National Catholic Charities, held recently in Kansas City, Missouri, Sister M. Paulette, head of the Sociology Department of Nazareth College, was elected vice-chairman of the Committee on Social and Economic Problems.

Chairman of the Committee is the Rt. Rev. Mgr. L. G. Ligutti, of the National Catholic Rural Life Conference, who was one of the most amusing and interesting speakers at the College last year.

Talks On Protection Mr. William A. Lang, Defense Coordinator, addressed a recent meeting of the Journalism Class at Nazareth College. In his talk Mr. Lang stressed the importance of complete cooperation of civilians during blackouts.

USO Center Aid Miss Dorothy Craig, president of the Alumnae will address the student body at 2 p. m. on Nov. 12 during the student hour. She will explain the plan of the newly established USO Center and what both the alumnae and undergraduate students can do to help the Center.

Plan Musicale The Student Council held its Bi-Monthly Meeting in the Student Council rooms on Nov. 3 to discuss plans for the coming year's Musicale. Meeting was followed by a supper club sponsored by the Senior Student Council representative Sister Teresa Marie, faculty adviser and Miss Rosemary Tierney who, at the suggestion of Miss Rita Scott, was chosen by the Student Council as director of the Musicale, were present.

Kin Pray Daily For Men In Service BAY ST. LOUIS, Miss. Mothers and other relatives of the 28 men from this city's War I who are in the armed forces assemble for an hour each day in St. Joseph's Chapel to pray for the welfare of their kin in the service. Their practice is called the "Pilgrimage of Prayer."

'Sick Call' Auxiliary Natchez, Miss. - The Children of Mary of the Cathedral parish have organized themselves into a "sick call auxiliary." Two members will be appointed each month for each of the city's four wards to learn if there are any cases of illness among Catholics and, to advise, if necessary, a visit by a priest.
