

Alumnae Plan Play At Mercy

The Alumnae Association of Our Lady of Mercy School will present its second annual play on Monday and Tuesday evenings, November 10 and 17 in the School Auditorium. Blossom Road. This year's presentation will be "Smilin' Through" a three act wartime play.

Miss Arlene Moalyn has been selected for the leading role and opposite her will be John Reagan. Others in the cast include Marian Byrne, James Reynolds, Betty Burns, Mary Jane Berry, Constance Schifferl, James Flaherty and Harry McShavick.

Mistress of Wardrobe will be Marjorie Howland, and Marie Cox will act as prompter. Properties will be handled by Cecelia Repacher, and make up by Geraldine Giose.

The Alumnae Club which is under the direction of Monica Nervas will furnish the musical background for the play.

Margaret Alling is in charge of the Ticket Committee, and she is being assisted by a large committee. Any member of the Alumnae who by some chance has not as yet been contacted by this committee, may obtain tickets either

HIGH SCHOOL CLUB

*Beginning tomorrow, Friday, the boys and girls of the parish of high school age are invited to an evening of recreation and fun in the Church hall. There will be music for those who may care to dance. Ping pong, shuffle board etc., will provide entertainment for others. All Catholic high school pupils, whether they are attending Catholic or public schools, may take part. Activities will begin at 8:30 each Friday evening.

HOLY NAME SUNDAY

Next Sunday, Nov. 8, is the second Sunday of the month and therefore the regular Communion Sunday for the men of the Holy Name Society. While the members may receive Holy Communion at any of the Masses, the Society receives as a group at the 7 o'clock Mass and all who can do so are asked to try to attend that Mass.

CHAPLAIN'S PARTY

On Wednesday evening, Nov. 18, at 8:30 in Blessed Sacrament Auditorium, a gala Army and Navy Chaplains' Party will be given in co-operation with the Chaplains' Aid Association of New York City. The proceeds of the party will be donated to the Chaplains' Association to purchase the necessary religious articles for our boys in the field, as well as Mass outfits for the Chaplains, of which they are in such dire need.

Twenty-three games will be played all cash, with a major prize of 100 dollars. Other attractive prizes will also be given. Tickets are 50 cents, tax included. Every one in the parish is urged to attend to help make this affair a great success for our boys in the service. Tickets are on sale at the rectory.

CONFIRMATION

The Sacrament of Confirmation will be administered at Blessed Sacrament on Thursday evening, Nov. 19, at 8 o'clock. Special classes for the children preparing for Confirmation are given on Monday and Wednesday afternoons.

DRAMATIC CLUB JUBILEE

Nov. 8 to 14 the Dramatic Club will celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of its founding.

The week's activities will open with a corporate Communion on Sunday morning, to which all past and present members are invited.

Under the direction of Joseph Durbin, the club has prepared a three-act comedy-mystery "Am I Intruding?" to be presented Sunday and Monday evenings. The cast includes Ruth Hess, Harold Hetsler, Marie Ling, Bernice Mattea, Bernard Meyering, Edward Miller, Jeanette Rehberg, Joseph Scheible, Bernard Scheuch, Lucille Senger, Bernice Trunk, George Walter. Prompters are Irene and Lucille Hetsler. Bill Aman has been appointed stage manager. Assisting him are George Walter, property man, and Annamae Rehberg, property girl. Edward Miller and Alice Trunk are head ushers.

Following through, the members will attend Novena Services on Tuesday and on Wednesday they will present a well planned initiation for new members taken in in the recent membership drive. Thursday a theater party will be featured.

The celebration will come to a close on Saturday with a dinner dance at the Powers Hotel. Bernard Meyering is business manager and Joseph Scheible has charge of entertainment. The dinner program will be dedicated to the fellows from the club who are now serving our country. May the next twenty-five years of the club's history be as successful as its first.

WEDDINGS

Ryan - Maier

Blessed Sacrament Church was the scene of a pretty fall wedding Oct. 24 when Miss Harriette Louise Maier, daughter of Mrs. Edward J. Maier of Westland Avenue, became the bride of Lieut. James M. Ryan, U. S. Army, son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Ryan of Los Angeles, Calif.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Thomas F. Connors assisted by the Rev. Michael O'Brien and the Rev. John Morgan.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Louis E. Maier. Mrs. Gerald J. LePine of Glenview, Ill., was matron of honor for her sister.

Herbert P. Ryan was best man for his brother and the ushers were Edward J. Ryan, another brother and Gerald J. LePine.

A wedding breakfast for members of the bridal party and families was served at the Sagamore, after which Lieutenant and Mrs. Ryan left on an eastern trip.
