CORPUS CHRISTI PARISH

Festival Ticket Sale Begins

With the distribution of the Preliminary Festival Tickets the annual Harvest Festival is officially underway. Every family is listed as a patron and we anticipate a success beyond any previous festival.

The committee will meet next week to make definite arrangements for the Festival itself. Besides the great Turkey Booth, which will be the feature attraction, there will be a large number of novel games of skill. The whole festival will make its appeal to the entire family. For the benefit of the parish it will be a truly parish event with games and entertain-

Major Catholic Intercollegiate Football Action

By Elmer Grapevater, Jr. Anyone of you reading this column could have blindfolded yourself and still have done better than I did at picking the winners last week. It's a great consolation, however, to learn that the "Experts" also ran into their poorest week since they began picking games. That's all the alibi I can think of, so let's proceed.

Boston College is the only Catholic aggregation with an unblemished slate. Detroit lost to Marquette leaving only the Eagles on which to pin our hopes. Notre Dame is still coming along beautifully, however, and rates almost on a par with Boston College.

1. Boston College over Temple: Our one hope has easy pickings. If Temple wins they'll arrest her on the charge of false pretenses.

2. St. Mary's over Duquesne: Why do I have to pick such games as evenly matched as any two teams could be.

3. Fordham over Louisiana: Both mediocre. Filipowits should spell the difference.

4. North Carolina Pre-Flight over Georgetown: The Hoyas looked very poor last week. Pre-Flight has one of the best teams in the east.

5. Holy Cross over Brown: For three weeks I've picked the Crusaders to lose but just for spite, they won.

6. Marquette over Manhattan: The avalanche smothered the New Yorkers.

7. Notre Dame over Army: Navy put up a great fight against the Irish last week and Army will do the same this week. However, Notre Dame is too good to lose this one.

8. Santa Clara over Loyola: Both started out like lightning but soon calmed down. The Broncos, however, are still potentially a great team.

Last week's score: (forgive me) 3 hits, 5 misses. Total score: 15 hits, 16 misses.

men for young and old. As announced last week the dates for the Harvest Festival will be Saturday and Monday evenings, November 21 and 22, in our parish hall.

Tuesday Nite Parties: The continued growth in the attendance at our weekly parish parties testifies to the popularity of these weekly affairs. The increased list of awards has created an appeal to all who attend. We invite our parishioners and their friends to come and enjoy one of the Tuesday Nite Parish Parties.

Blanket Club: This week Mrs. Ann M. Emmanuel of Ferris St.

Novena To Our Lady: The dangers of these perilous times should urge more of us—all of us, in fact—to attend the weekly Monday evening Novena Service in honor of our Lady of the Miraculous Medal. The service begins at 8:00 and consists of the regular Novena Prayers, a short sermon and Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Mercy Student Groups Plan Victory Dance

The Student Government Association and the Sodality of Our Lady of Mercy High School are completing plans for a Victory Benefit Dance to be held on Friday evening, November 6. Co-chairmen of the affair are Ariene Dugan and Annette Mattie. Proceeds of the dance will be turned into War Stamps and Bonds.

Music will be furnished by Tony Mulligan and his popular orchestra. In cooperation with the war effort and the transit problems, coffee, sandwiches, sundaes and soft drinks will be served in the school cafeteria during intermission and after the dance. Arrangements for this part of the evening's entertainment are in charge of Helen Smith. Parents of the students have been invited to act as chaperons or to visit the group during the course of the evening. Natalie Schwetz, a chairman of this committee.

Other committees will be headed by the following Mercians: decorations, Jean Curtis; checking, Helen Crough; publicity, Helen Ryan.

PROTESTANT GROUP'S VOTE FAVORS BIRTH CONTROL

SPRINGFIELD, Mass.—A resolution giving "heartly approval" to the proposed birth control referendum in this State "in the interest of family health and welfare" was adopted at the ninth annual convention here of the Massachusetts Council of Churches.

Delegates representing 13 Protestant denominations attended the convention.

American College Honors Man in Charge

AUBURN.—Sister M. Roberts, superintendent of Mercy Hospital has been elected to membership in the American College of Hospital Administrators. She was received into the college by Dr. Lucian H. Wilson, president, and Joseph G. Markey, president-elect, at a formal reception last week in the ballroom of the Jefferson Hotel, St. Louis, Mo.

This is viewed as a tribute to the leadership of the Third Franciscan Order of Servants of which Sister Roberts is a member. The Mother House is at St. Anthony's Convent in Court St., Syracuse.

The American College of Hospital Administrators has members from every state of the Union, the West and Canada. Roberts will receive the permanent membership of high hospital standards in careful administration. At Sister M. Roberts' dedication the College also conferred an honorary degree upon Dr. Wendell Henry Smith, director of John Deane Hospital, Baltimore.
