The Duke of Paducah Sez:

TRYPIN' to rent a house these days is about as pleasant as grabbin' a drunk by the tail and playin' yo-yo. And rent is so high, I had to borrow from one of them loan sharks who doesn't require a co-signer. But it's mighty confusin'. Now after I repay his loan, how's he gonna put my leg BACK on me? I rented one of them small houses. It's what you might call a 'phone booth with hot and cold running relatives. In fact, I kinda think my wife's brother is an auctioneer. He keeps sayin' he's goin', GOIN', GOIN'—but he ain't gone YET! But thank goodness they finally dropped the ceiling on rent. And if my rent ain't paid on time, they drop the ceiling on ME. My neighborhood is so tough, the Commandos refuse to walk through there unless they're holdin' onto their mamas' hands. Well, anyhow, let's remember to buy more War Bonds 'cause the only way to "V" is through "U." I'm goin' back to the wagon. These shoes are killin' me!
—Whitney Ford, Duke of Paducah.
