

Avers Armed Forces Present Greatest Mission Field

ALBANY — "The Armed Forces constitute our greatest mission field today," the Most Rev. John F. O'Hara, C.S.C., Military Delegate, declares in a message reproduced in the current issue of The Evangelist, Albany diocesan weekly which is dedicated to the Catholic Chaplains and their uniformed "parishioners" in the military and naval services.

The Most Rev. Edmund F. Gibbons, Bishop of Albany, commends the special edition, saying "The true idea of The Evangelist to dedicate the issue of the paper to our Army and Navy Chaplains and batty in the service will be to them, where-ever they are, a comforting assurance that they are not forgotten at home."

The Rt. Rev. Mgr. William R. Arnold, Brigadier General and Chief of Chaplains in the United States Army, also sent greetings marking the special edition.

"We have a better proportion of chaplains than ever before in our history," Bishop O'Hara says in his message to the paper, "the provision of chaplains for religious worship has encouraged the practice of religion; the release of Army chaplains from secular duties has enabled them to give full attention to the spiritual needs of their men. The results speak for themselves. The number of Holy Communion distributed by chaplains of the Armed Forces during the first eight months of this year have totaled nearly a million and three quarters. Our people have accepted willingly the sacrifice of extra Sunday Masses in order that the men under arms may have the same spiritual attention. The blessing of God will reward all who have sacrificed to this end."

"My dear, your mind certainly does wreck the English language."

"Doesn't she? I expect if she were made to eat her words, she'd die of indigestion."

ST. MICHAEL'S (Penn Yan)

CHURCH IMPROVEMENTS

PENN YAN.—Extensive church improvements have been completed on St. Michael's Church property. The rectory and the new vest have been painted, a new altar and boiler has been placed in the school and a new altar in the convent.

a corresponding prayer. This is followed with a prayer for all men in the service. The ceremonies are concluded with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and special novena prayers.

Last Wednesday, Nov. 4, the American Legion Post attended the ceremony in a body. At that time the new flag, American and Service flags were blessed by the Rev. John F. O'Hara, Administrator. The dedication ceremony was presided by the Rev. Joseph F. Higgins, assistant pastor.

Bohemian Catholic Union

Buys $200,000 in War Bonds

CHICAGO — Purchase here of $25,000 worth of war bonds by the local unit of the Bohemian Catholic First Central Union brings to $200,000 the amount bought by the Union and its subordinate societies. The Treasury Department will take cognizance of this record by awarding a citation to the Union at a celebration on November 8 marking the sixty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Union.

An inexperienced speaker arose in confusion after dinner and murmured stumbly.

"M-m-my f-f-friends, when I came here tonight only God and myself knew what I was about to say to you—and now only God knows."
