THANKSGIVING BAZAAR SET

By MARGARET MILLEN

November days are upon us again bringing with them Thanksgiving and the annual St. Boniface Fall Festival. This year's bazaar is being held on Friday and Saturday evenings, Nov. 20 and 21.

One hundred turkeys will be in the booth for bazaar patrons, together with other valuable articles. The books are in charge of the following: The Chestertonians, Bernard Zimmerman, the Young Men's Club, Bill Baker; the Knights of St. John, Frank Vogel, Sr.; the Sodality of Mary, Lucille Williams. The three benevolent Societies, St.

Boniface, St. Joseph's and St. Herman's will be in charge of Northern Travel and the Ladies Auxiliary of the Knights of St. John and the Little Flower Guild booth will be handled by Mrs. Theresa Tremont.

Miss Eva Schreiner is arranging for the Friday afternoon party for the children; the Sacred Heart Society will be in charge of the kitchen and will serve lunch each evening and the Boy and Girl Scouts will have the refreshment booth.

John Curran is general chairman of the Festival and he is being assisted by Charles Scherer. Milt. Schaefer is handling the publicity.

Ticket books have already been distributed and additional ones may be obtained at the Rectory.

Catholic Hour Speaker

ARTHUR — The Rev. Leonard Feeney, R. J. is the guest speaker on the Catholic Hour during the month of November. This hour is sponsored by the National Council of Catholic Men and is heard each Sunday at 8:30 o'clock on W. T. over the NBC Red network.

Father Feeney has chosen as the general topic for his series the topic "We are the Children of God". On Nov. 12th he will discuss "The Church's Sacraments" on November 22, "God As a Father" and the concluding lecture "The Mother of God" will be broadcast on Nov. 28.

Father Feeney is known for his literary and speaking activities. He was born in Lynn, Massachusetts in 1887 and joined the Society of Jesus in 1914 and was ordained in 1916. He is an author of the Catholic Hour series of lectures and member of the Gallery of Living Catholic Authors. Among his published works are "The Church as a Mother" and "The Church as a Father". He has also written "The Church as a Mother" and "The Church as a Father". He is at present an instructor in English at Western College, Weston, Mass.

FINAL PLANS FOR ANNUAL HARVEST FESTIVAL

With an effort to make this year's Harvest Festival more of a success than any other, the Committee of Workers have shaped final plans for this annual parish affair. Scheduled for Saturday and Monday evenings, Nov. 21 and 22, this festival will feature a huge Turkey Booth, which is part of the Thanksgiving holiday spirit.

In the center of the whole Festival, the Turkey Booth will be an outstanding attraction. Arrangements are being made for a supply of unusually fine fowls. In addition to this booth, there will be a chicken booth games of skill, and refreshments. There will be something for young and old, everything to guarantee an enjoyable two evenings for all attending.

The decorations are in charge of Mrs. Michael O'Beirne and will express the spirit of the season. The hall will be a riot of autumn colors to give a warmth and a note of gladness to the Festival.

Returns on the preliminary sale of tickets promises that this festival will be a grand success. Every family has been asked to dispose of one book of tickets and the response on the part of many gives assurance of full co-operation. Returns should be made as soon as possible at the rectory or by inserting them in the coin envelope, and placed in the Sunday offering basket. Every family should be a part of this preliminary sale, for the success of the whole festival depends in large measure upon the full response to this sale of tickets.

Heading the Committee of Workers are John Stanley as Chairman and Mrs. John J. Kost, Sr., as Assistant Chairman. Members of the committee are Joseph Boehme, Robert Boyle, Mary Buttaccio, Patricia Cahill, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Caldwell, John Carney, Marie Carroll, Thomas Doyle, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Leo Fleming, Joseph Flood, Leo Fox, Mrs. M. L. Fox, Marie Fox, Norman Fuehrer, Joseph Gaffney, Charles Goonan, James Goonan, Loretta Haffey, Arthur Hanratty, John Hedger, Robert Heier, Dolores Hoffman, Mrs. T. J. Hogan, Jean P. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. William T. Kelly, William E. Kelly, Beatrice Herwin, Carl Klein, John Kost, Jr., John Kost, Sr., William Kuebel, Mrs. F. R. Leary, Patricia Mahoney, Marie Mayer, Robert Mayer, William Mayer, Mary McGrath, Eugene McLaughlin, Paul McLaughlin, Leslie Mead, Thomas Idernagh, Mrs. Joseph Mully, Raymond Nannini, Claudia O'Beirne, Marie O'Beirne, Jean O'Halloran, Gertrude O'Horn, Mrs. W. E. O'Keefe, Mrs. James Pollock, Granger Reynolds, Collette Stanley, Dorothy Toveia, Katherine Trott, Mrs. Thomas Trott, Eileen Vetter, Alice Welch.

Monthly School Collection Sunday — Generous offerings to our parish school will be solicited at all the Masses on this coming Sunday. The increased expenses of our school and the many recent improvements should urge our people to make increased offerings. We ask our contributors to use the special envelope for this purpose.

Holy Name Membership Open — Although the great majority of the men of our parish enrolled in the Holy Name Society on last Sunday, we are leaving our membership open for those who have not yet signed the application card. Cards are available at the entrances of the church and may be signed and handed to one of the ushers or brought into the sacristy after Mass. We want every man to be a member of this great Church society. Every Catholic man should take advantage of the opportunities of the numerous spiritual and social benefits of this society. Every Catholic man should welcome this opportunity of being of special service to His God and His Church. Sign a card this Sunday if you have not as yet done so.

Tuesday Nite Parties Each Week: We again invite our people and their friends to our weekly Tuesday Nite Parish Parties. Growing in popularity they are attracting larger crowds each week. With five bus lines passing the door of our parish hall, the gas rationing problem does not interfere with the attendance at these parties. Come along next Tuesday. Bring a few friends to make up a party. We promise that you will enjoy our regular weekly social.

Young People's Club Meeting: Festivities — Due to other events which were beyond the control of the Director and the club committee, the first organization meeting of the young people's club of Corpus Christi has been postponed until Sunday, Dec. 12. This meeting will be a supper-meeting and will be held in our parish hall at 6:00. All unmarried or married young men and women between the ages of Senior Class in High School and 35 years of age are invited to make reservations at the Rectory for this first club supper-meeting. Tickets will be 50c and will include a program of entertainment. At this meeting Father Morphy will explain the organization and its purpose. Time will be given for open discussion on the part of those attending.

Wine Club — This week, Neil Macdonald of Brookline, Mass.

The Champion Story Teller

I think we all shall never see An author just the same as he
A writer who from dawn till night Delights to make a child's life bright.

Another priest, you'll all agree,
Who strives to make all lives
sin-free.
And when this life is but a child's,
You'll always find him meek and mild.

Read his books and get acquainted, You'll find yourself becoming sainted.
He loves the fun, the rollicking
joy
That's always part of a real good boy.

He's a pleasant and jovial, holy
and gay,
Like unto Christ all thru the day.
He spends himself that others may know
The gifts of God—His love to show.

That in each life—Prayer and Love
With a little work will take us above
To the Christ, Who made him a rollicking boy
Then a Priest of God to give others joy.

His books are written for you and me
By his fun-loving heart, just wait and see Read POMPEY BRIGGS, then smile away
And love God more from day to day.
