AT AQUINAS INSTITUTE Set Fifth Anniversary Rite For Scout Troop

Fifth Anniversary of Boy Scout Troop 215 will be marked by the awarding of the highest Scout honors to two members of the Troop...

St. Alphonsus School, Auburn, has concentrated on a dues campaign and as a result have proudly sent me their check for $30.10 for the current year...

St. Mary's School, Cornwall, has kept us busy caring for their adoptions. The Pupils of the Fifth Grade have selected the name Christopher for their Chinese baby...

Another gift of $5 approved from Conring for the ransom of an African baby to be called Plus Arthur.

Tucked in with some compositions on Mission Sunday from St. Patrick's School, Seneca Falls, was a nice check for $30 for dues...

It was good to open the mail this morning and find a request for an adoption of a Russian baby from Sacred Heart School, Perkinsville. The pupils of the Fourth Fifth and Sixth Grades who adopted this baby would like it to be called Joseph Augusta.

The Third and Fourth Grades of St. John's School, Clyde, have saved their pennies to ransom a little Eskimo baby to be called Joseph Thomas. It was good to hear from you, boys and girls.

We have a suspicion that we omitted to credit Holy Trinity School, Webster, with the fine record in dues sent us in October. The check amounted to $24.84 and was the dues for the year.

The pupils of St. Charles' Berenice School, Rochester, have been most faithful in setting aside their pennies to care for their Holy Childhood Dues. As a result they were able to send us a check for $42.

By dint of campaigns and candy sales, the Mission Club of the Eighth Grade of St. Basil's School have ransomed a little Chinese baby to be called Patrick Martin. The members of the club are wide-awake mission workers and are out to work hard for the missions.

We have just heard from St. Wenceslaus School, What do you think they are reporting from the students there? Twelve adoptees! Here they are:

- Kindergarten, Negro from Selma, William; 4th Grade, Eskimo, Joseph Thomas; 5th Grade, Mexican, Rose Marie; 5th Grade, Negro from Selma, James Vincent; 6th Grade, Negro Twins, Selma, Francis Xavier and Rose Xavier; 6th Grade Chinese, Mary Edwina; 7th Grade, Negro Twins, Selma, Elizabeth and Willams; 8th Grade, Negro Twins, Selma, Jane and Jean de Chantal.

We close this very fine report with a note from Ralph Iocco of St. John's School, Clyde. He says: I am enclosing $5.00 for the ransom of a baby boy by myself. I am a pupil of the Seventh Grade. I worked during the summer to earn this money and am saving for another ransom. I wish the boy to be called Ralph and have my mother, Anna, for godmother, and my father, Nicholas, for godfather. Will you please place the ransom where it is most needed? Fine work, Ralph, and we shall be delighted to carry out your wishes. And now if in this long list we have unintentionally omitted any school or grade, please call us and we shall see that it appears in next week's issue. In the meantime pray hard for the missions.

SODAL TALK

Although several dances were held throughout the city on Friday, Nov. 6, St. Michael's Sodality had very little competition. Billy Polman and his Orchestra furnished the music. Two hundred Sodality-minded parishioners gave such support to the affair that another dance will be held in the near future.

"Something new has been added to St. John's Sodality. The 'NAMELESS' will make its first appearance on November 18 at the monthly meeting. Of course, everyone understands that this is St. John's new Sodality paper. The night of the meeting a contest will be held to decide the real name of the publication. Until then its title will remain as stated above. Editor is Madette Dressler but since she is unable to take over her duties, Mary Jane Merrill will 'pinch hit' for the first edition.

Wouldn't every Sodalist in the city like to be present at St. John's meeting? They are going to present a Fashion Show. Directed by

AT AQUINAS INSTITUTE

By ROGER TRABOLD. Taking a 37-0 deviation over a scrappy De Sales eleven, Aquinas Institute earned its fourth win of the season in last Saturday's action-filled game at Edgerton Park. Johnny Sullivan started off with his second team and left them in for the entire first half. These boys found the going very tough, but managed to score once on a short pass, after penetrating deep into the visitors' territory. The Irish however, were not satisfied with this slim 6-0 lead as they put in their first team to start the second half. Taking the ball over on downs at midfield this outfit drove on for a touchdown, with Reynolds scoring on an off-tackle play. The tally was again raised when Billy tossed a long pass to Boerachkin who, with little difficulty, went over.

Still another touchdown was chalked up by the Maroons when Reynolds went over after Ray Pierce had bulled to the 10. At this point the second team entered the fray in order to slow down the scoring. But this group could not be stopped either, as Wesley intercepted a pass on the 45 and ran it over for another six-pointer. Then Bob Shayton, making the first successful placement of the season for Aquinas, upped the score another point. However the tallying was not ended until Moroso heaved a 30-yard touchdown pass to Hart in the last minutes of play.

Polstered by this win, the Aquinas Irish will take on St. Joe's of Buffalo at the old University of Rochester field, Sunday, Nov. 16.

LAWYOMAN HONORED

Kansas City, Mrs. Joseph E. Scherer, prominent Catholic lay woman in the Diocese of Kansas City has received the Pupal medal. "Pro Ecclesia et Pontifice"

Alice Marie Hansas, fashions from the "gay nineties" to the present day will be shown. Music will be furnished by Monica Servas.

Our Holy Father has always looked forward to the spiritual bouquet offered each year by the American Sodality. How much more he will appreciate this gift at a time when he has little else to console save the prayers of his children. Have you begun the triduum in his honor. There is not too much time in which to send this report to the Sodality Union. Why not invite the entire parish to join their prayers with those of the Sodality?

R.B.I. NEWMAN CLUB HOLDS COMMUNION BREAKFAST

A large number of Catholic students at Rochester Business Institute, active members of the Newman Club, attended Mass and held a Communion Breakfast Sunday, Nov. 8. Mass was celebrated at St. Mary's Church at 9:30 and members went to Lorenzo's for the Breakfast which was featured by a talk on current world trends by Dr. James Eastham of Nazareth College.
