JUNIOR SODALITY PARTY

By MARY ROSE BARRON

AUBURN—The Junior Sodality had a Halloween Party last week. This was no ordinary affair but a real honest to goodness "spook party". There was an abundance of cornucopia and rustling leaves used to decorate Lyceum Hall and a great quantity of Jack O'Lanterns grained hideously in the almost total darkness of the Hall. When one entered the door one was greeted by one of the creators of Halloween land who guided her through the Jungle by way of the rocky road to Dulcinea, past a great symbolic of cemetery land and after enduring the trials and horrors of Jungle Land the guest was given a final reminder of the Jungle when the raindrops began to fall.

The Sodality had their fortunes told by Madame Jean, went to Jerusalem, ducked for apples, played a variety of games and just before the refreshments were served, there was a grand march led by the witch of Jungle Land. The prize for the best costume was awarded to Marie Antonacci, whose costume was judged the "most witchy" of all the spook and witch costumes.

The Rev. Richard Torrey, St. Mary's newest assistant, made his debut in Sodality circles at the Halloween Party. Father Torrey had a great time and rumor has it that he made a great song leader. Miss Betty Brennan was chairman of the party and she was assisted by Lorraine Bradley, Betty Falsay, Dolores Robinson and Jean Wade. The party was judged a huge success by everyone. The best part of it all was that nearly every girl in the Junior Sodality was present at the affair.

SENIOR SODALITY

St. Mary's has re-organized its Sodality. Any girl in the parish who has been graduated from High School during the past ten years is now a member of the Senior Sodality. Any girl who is graduated from the Eighth Grade and is in High School or of High School age is a member of the Junior Sodality.

The Senior Sodality elected as officers for the coming year: President, Miss Mary Ganey, Vice-president, Miss Jean Callahan, Secretary, Miss Betty Coonan, Treasurer, Miss Margaret Ryan.

Mrs. Frank Dullea who has given courses in Home Nursing for the members of the Senior Sodality spoke briefly at the November Meeting outlining the course in nursing. It is sincerely hoped by all those interested in Sodality work that these young women recently graduated from high school will take an active interest in the organization and support the officers whom they have elected to carry on the burden of the work for the coming year. The success of the organization depends not only on the officers but on the help given by every single member of the organization. Father Hickey will serve as moderator of the Senior Sodality.

JUNIOR SODALITY

The Junior Sodality met on Tuesday evening in Lyceum Hall. Preceding the meeting they attended devotions which consisted of special prayers and Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament. The business meeting was in charge of Miss Betty Bradley, prefect. A short talk was given by the moderator and the Sodality recited one decade of the rosary for the Poor Souls in Purgatory and for those in the service of their country.

Special stress was placed on monthly corporate communion. The Forty Hours Devotion will open in St. Mary's Church on Sunday, Nov. 29. At this time the Sodality will conduct the usual Sodality Holy Hour which will be held this year from three until four o'clock.

Once again the Sodality throughout the United States are offering a triduum of Masses and Holy Communions as a gift to the Holy Father for Christmas. Just prior to the Feast of the Immaculate Conception each Sodality is asked to offer Masses, Holy Communions and prayers for the intention of the Holy Father. Thus far St. Mary's sodalities have pledged 103 Masses and 133 Holy Communions as their part in the spiritual bouquet.

The sodalists are asked to make a special effort this year to pray for the Holy Father for his needs are greater than ever. Last year when the sodalities made their spiritual offering, America was not in the war for the United States officially declared war on the Feast of the Immaculate Conception.

SOCIETY'S COMMUNION

Next Sunday is the Communion Day of the Rosary and Scapular Society and all the women of the congregation. The November meeting of the Society will be held on Thursday, Nov. 19 at 8:00 o'clock in Lyceum Hall.
