Holy Redeemer Parish

JUBILEE RETREAT
CLOSES SUNDAY

Well attended Retreat exercises have marked the beginning of the DIAMOND JUBILEE OBSERVANCE at Holy Redeemer Church. Each evening at 7:45, Father Athanasius of the Passionist Order is conducting the exercises, which will be brought to a close with a Solemn Pontifical High Mass Sunday, at 11 o'clock, to be celebrated by Bishop Kearney. With its theme one of gratitude for spiritual and material benefits brought to their Parish over seventy-five years, the Retreat has inspired the Parish with a real spirit that cannot but bring added grace to the many participating in the exercises.

Monday morning there will be celebrated a Solemn Mass of Requiem for the deceased benefactors of the parish.

OLD HOME NIGHT

The Jubilee celebration will come to a close on Tuesday evening with a program of the Parish History staged by the school children at 8:00 o'clock in the Parish Hall. This will be followed by an Old Home Night in which past and present parishioners and their friends are invited to join. Refreshments will be served by the women of the Sacred Heart Sodality. Al Mock and his Old Timers will provide the music that will suit old and young alike.

CHANGE IN SUNDAY

MASS SCHEDULE
Due to the Pontifical ceremonies on Sunday, there will be no High Mass. It will be resumed, however, on Nov. 27.

Starting Nov. 22, the first Mass will be at 7 o'clock. Subsequent Masses will be at 8:30, 9:45, 11:00 and 12:15.

ST. MONICA'S PARISH

AUXILIARY INSTALLATION

By MARY E. CAUFIELD

The Ladies' Auxiliary, Branch 104, Knights of St. John of St. Monica's Parish, will hold their Installation Dinner on the regular meeting night, Tuesday Nov. 17 in St. Monica's Hall, Genesee Street. Officers to be installed by Deputy Ann Lamphier are: Spiritual Director, Rt. Rev. Msgr. William F. Bergan; past president, Miss Edna McLoughlin; president, Mrs. Ella Schaeffer; first vice-president, Miss Mary Witzel; second vice-president, Mrs. Anna Clark; recording secretary, Mrs. Claire McGee; financial secretary, Mrs. Lydia Bedford; treasurer, Mrs. Marie Schirmer; messenger, Mrs. Minnie Becker; sentinel, Mrs. Mary Schaeffer; guard, Mrs. Mary Farrell; trustees, Mrs. Mary DePrez, Mrs. May Callahan and Mrs. Mary Holenstein; representative, Miss Margaret Frisch; medical examiner, Dr. William B. Cullen.

A Turkey Dinner will be served by Leo Lewis at 6:30 o'clock in the hall, followed by the installation of officers. Cards will also be played and prizes awarded.

All reservations for the dinner must be made Nov. 14 with Mrs. Mary DePrez, Genesee 6616-R.

SENIOR SODALITY

The regular monthly meeting of the Senior Sodality was held on Monday evening, Nov. 9, in the parish hall. Miss Ella Mason, vice-protect, conducted the meeting.

Father Paul Gibbons, spiritual director of the group, gave a most instructive talk on the Communion Sunday intention, and also briefly outlined very briefly what he, together with the officers, hoped to accomplish during the coming months.

Monsignor Bergin was present at the meeting and made several very worthwhile suggestions.

Plans were discussed at the meeting for the annual Christmas Party which will be held on Monday, December 14. Miss Marian Hertel was appointed chairman of this affair.

Communion Sunday for both the Junior and Senior Groups of the Sodality will be Sunday, Nov. 15. All members are urged to attend the 9 o'clock Mass in a body.

VICTORY PARTY

Members of St. Monica's Parish are cordially invited to attend the Victory Party at Blessed Sacrament Hall on next Wednesday evening, Nov. 18. The party is being sponsored by the Rochester Victory Chapter No. 1 and all proceeds will be used for the Army-Navy Chaplains Fund. Tickets are 35 cents and may be obtained by calling Mrs. Edward Comney, Genesee 3906-W.

Open Home Nursing Courses

Instruction in Home Nursing as a war measure is being expanded by the Rochester Chapter of the American Red Cross, according to George Hawks, Chairman of the Rochester Chapter today.

Classes for women, girls, men and boys in Red Cross Home Nursing are to be conducted by a graduate nurse authorized as an instructor by the National Red Cross, Mr. Hawks said.

"Because in many communities large numbers of doctors and nurses are leaving for service with the armed forces, the home-maker needs to learn to be more resourceful," Mr. Hawks pointed out. "She needs to be able to better care for her own family while nursing and medical facilities are being drawn from civilian life. She can gain that resourcefulness through training in the Red Cross Home Nursing course.

"In the course, which is twenty-four to thirty hours long, the homemaker is taught self-reliance in caring for each member of her family particularly. She learns how to prevent illnesses through proper diet, exercise and rest, how to keep a healthy home environment, how to care for the baby and growing children, and how to deal with community health problems, such as the prevention of the spread of communicable diseases," Mr. Hawks continues.

The courses have the special endorsement of the medical and nursing profession through the National Council on Red Cross Home Nursing, composed of representatives from Government departments on health and nursing organizations.

Classes will be open to everyone, Mr. Hawks emphasized, and will be arranged to suit the convenience of those registering. "We want to reach persons of every walk of life particularly housewives and high school girls," he stated. For registering, call the American Red Cross, Main 6160, and ask for Home Nursing.

AIDES ARRANGE FALL CARD PARTY OF ST. ANN'S GROUP

The annual fall card party sponsored by the Altar and Rosary Society of St. Ann's Church was held on Thursday evening, Nov. 12, at 8 o'clock, in the church hall. Refreshments were served and prizes awarded.

Mrs. Louis Werner was general chairman of the affair and Mrs. Fred Koening hostess.

The ticket committee included Mrs. Lewis Andrews, Mrs. Fred Ahrons, Mrs. Edward Heugney, Mrs. Warren Brayer, Mrs. William Owens, Mrs. Edward Lombard, Mrs. George Swagler, Mrs. Harry Weaver, Mrs. Victor Lootens, Mrs. Harold Neenan, Mrs. William Cashian, Mrs. John McDonald and Mrs. Frank McL-Hand.

Prizes, Mrs. Frank Kaiser Mrs. Oswald Gendreau, cards and talies, Mrs. Harlowe Root, Mrs. Charles Hondorf, Mrs. Joseph La-Rocca, Mrs. Joseph Lombard, Mrs. Stanley Beaman and Mrs. Leo Fernon.

Refreshments, Mrs. Joseph Moana, Mrs. John Moore, Mrs. James Malcek, Mrs. Joseph McMahon, Mrs. Boyd Howland and Mrs. Frank Orsini.

Curran Lauds Shrine Church Of The Sea

NEW YORK — The seamen's welfare work of the Rt. Rev. Msgr. John J. O'Donnell at the Shrine Church of the sea, here, was praised by Joseph Curran, president of the National Maritime Union, CIO, in an address to the Propeller Club and American Merchant Marine Conference.

Curran said that with the exception of the Shrine Church and the United Seamen's Service, "I've seen very little beneficial work done."
