

CYA Director Sounds Call For Parish Basketball Leagues

Columbus Youth Association will again conduct a Parish Basketball League for high school and grammar school students providing there is sufficient response from last year's participants.

'New' Glasser

Teams entered in the High School League last fall were Corpus Christi, St. Joseph, St. Andrew's, Holy Cross and the St. Joseph quint.

Grammar School League was composed of the St. Mary's dribblers, St. Stanislaus, Holy Cross, St. Jerome's and Holy Rosary.

This year's League will be operated by the new CYA Physical Director Bern Glasser, who was recently honorably discharged from the U. S. Marine. He asks that all interested call him at the Columbus Youth Association, Stone 1483.

Major Catholic Intercollegiate Football Action

By Elmer Grapengeter, Jr. Boston College and Notre Dame continue to lead the way among the Catholic schools. The Eagles were ranked third in the national and the Irish ranked fourth. Last week's score, 4 hits and 19 misses.

1. Boston College over Fordham: The Eagles are riding high and should rout the one night Rams.

2. North Carolina State over Georgetown: The Hoyas are unusually weak this year.

3. Mississippi State over Duquesne: The Dukes got off to an excellent start, then flopped badly.

4. Holy Cross over Temple: Can't seem to predict these Crusaders. An in-and-out, hot-and-cold team.

5. North Carolina pre-flight over Manhattan: The airman are much too strong for the New Yorkers.

6. DePaul over Villanova: The latter is below par this season.

7. Marquette over Great Lakes Naval Training School: We are taking the underdog here and hoping for an upset.

8. Notre Dame over Michigan: Notre Dame is about the steadiest team in the country these days.

9. Santa Clara over St. Mary's: The Broncos have dropped only one game this year. (Tradition rivals.)

Total Score: 19 hits 19 misses

LAST OF ZOUAVES
Valentin City, Mathieu Frere, who, it has been learned, died at Liege on Aug. 9, was the last of the Belgian Papal Zouaves. He was 81.

On Tuesday evening, Nov. 10, Eastman Theater was the scene of the formal presentation of the coveted Army-Navy "E" Award to The Fulmer Graflex Corporation of this city, manufacturers of Graflex and Graphic cameras and photographic equipment.

Over 3,000 attended the ceremonies, the audience comprising officers and members of the Graflex Organization, their invited guests, many High Army, Navy, Marine and Coast Guard officers, and civic authorities.

Presentation of the "E" flag for high achievement in the production of war materials, was made by Lieutenant Colonel James A. McDonnell, District Inspector, Office of the United States Army Air Forces, and accepted in behalf of the company by Nelson L. Whitaker, president of Fulmer Graflex Corporation. During the proceedings, Captain Herbert W. Taylor, Director of Photography in the Bureau of Aeronautics, United States Navy, presented the Army-Navy "E" insignia to the members of the Graflex Organization, who were represented on the stage by Arthur E. Miltahn and Mrs. Leo W. Mullaney.

AT AQUINAS INSTITUTE

By ROGER TRABOLD
Aquinas 37
DeSales High 0

Taking a 27-0 decision over a scrappy De Sales eleven, Aquinas Institute earned its fourth win of the season in last Saturday's action-filled game at Edgerton Park.

Johnny Sullivan started off with his second team and left them in for the entire first half. These boys found the going very tough, but managed to score once on a short pass, after penetrating deep into the visitors' territory.

The Irish, however, were not satisfied with this slim 6-0 lead so they put in their first team to start the second half. Taking the ball over on downs at midfield, this outfit drove on for a touchdown, with Reynolds scoring on an off-tackle play.

The tally was again raised when Billy tossed a long pass to Boerschlein who, with little difficulty, went over.

Still another touchdown was chalked up by the Maroon when Reynolds went over after Ray Plasse had bulled to the 19. At this point the second team entered the fray in order to slow down the scoring.

But this group could not be stopped either, as Wesley intercepted a pass on the 45 and ran it over for another six-pointer.

Then Bob Shayton making the first successful placement of the season for Aquinas, upped the score another point. However, the tallying was not ended until Monaco heaved a 39-yard touchdown pass to Hart in the last minutes of play.

Boostered by this win, the Aquinas Irish will take on St. Joseph's Buffalo at the old University of Rochester field, Sunday, Nov. 15.

Set Fifth Anniversary Rite For Scout Troop

Fifth Anniversary of Boy Scout Troop 215 will be marked by the awarding of the highest Scout honor to two members of the Troop.

Ludwig Kleinbenz and Anthony Pecoraro These Scouts will receive the Eagle Award at the Anniversary Court of Honor to be held at St. Francis Xavier Hall, Bay St., on Thursday, Nov. 19 at 8 P. M.

Guest speaker at the Court of Honor will be the new Rochester Scout Executive, Leo Sandefur. A black-out demonstration featuring the various activities of Scouts in an over-all air raid has been planned by Junior Assistant Scoutmaster, Kenneth Steyman. A movie on Scouting and a movie taken of the Scouts who were members in 1940 will be shown.

Troop 215 is one of the young troops of the Rochester Council and was organized in 1933 at St. Francis Xavier Church by the Pastor, the Rev. Patrick Moffatt who appointed the Rev. Albert Simonetti as Chaplain. Despite its youth, forty-four awards will be made at this Court of Honor, including 2 Eagle Awards, 2 Life Awards, 1 Star Award. Ten new recruits will be added to the Troop's membership roster.

Troop 215 is under the direction of George Manning, Scoutmaster, and Pat Casano, Assistant Scoutmaster, assisted by the following Committeemen: James Pecoraro, Chairman, Peter Barzilleri, John Reina, George Froud and Dr. Alexander Bellanca, Troop's physician.

LAYWOMAN HONORED
Kansas City Mrs. Joseph E. Schorer prominent Catholic laywoman in the Diocese of Kansas City has received the Papal medal "Pro Ecclesia et Pontifice"

SODALTALK

Although several dances were held throughout the city on Friday, Nov. 6, St. Michael's Sodality had very little competition. Billy Polman and his Orchestra furnished the music. Two hundred Sodality-minded parishioners gave such support to the affair that another dance will be held in the near future.

Something new has been added to St. John's Sodality. The "NAMELESS" will make its first appearance on November 18 at the monthly meeting. Of course, everyone understands that this is St. John's new Sodality paper. The night of the meeting a contest will be held to decide the real name of the publication. Until then its title will remain as stated above. Editor is Madette Dressler but since she is unable to take over her duties, Mary Jane Merrill will "punch hit" for the first edition.

Wouldn't every Sodality in the city like to be present at St. John's meeting? They are going to present a Fashion Show. Directed by Alice Marie Hansz fashions from the 'gay nineties to the present day will be shown. Music will be furnished by Monica Servas.

Our Holy Father has always looked forward to the spiritual bouquet offered each year by the American Sodality. How much more he will appreciate this gift at a time when he has little else to console save the prayers of his children. Have you begun the triduum in his honor. There is not too much time in which to send the report to the Sodality Union. Why not invite the entire parish to join their prayers with those of the Sodality?

R.B.I. NEWMAN CLUB HOLDS COMMUNION BREAKFAST

Holy Childhood Association

Rev. John S. Randall
DIRECTOR

St. Alphonsus School, Auburn, has concentrated on a dues campaign and as a result have proudly sent me their check for $73.10 for the current year.

We are equally pleased to receive it as well as the good news that the Sixth Grade have chosen a little baby to be adopted in their name and called Mary Catherine.

A check for $37 is being entered as dues from St. Aloysius School, Auburn. We were glad to hear from the boys and girls and hope that they will write us again telling of their mission work.

Two letters reached us from St. Mary's School, Watertown. The Seventh and Eighth Grades wish a Chinese baby to be called Marion Angeline, while the Fifth and Sixth Grades who also wish a Chinese baby would like theirs to be called William Joseph. Many thanks, boys and girls.

St. Mary's School, Corning, has kept us busy caring for their adoptions. The Pupils of the Fifth Grade have selected the name Christopher for their Chinese baby while the Third Grade, Southwest, would like theirs called Joseph. Three more are added to our list of applications for Chinese babies, one from the Sixth Grade to be called William, one from the Seventh Grade, Mary Theres, and one from the Fourth Grade, to be called Rosaria.

Another gift of $5 arrived from Corning for the ransom of an African baby to be called Plus Ar that Tucked in with some composition on Mission Sunday from St. Patrick's School, Seneca Falls, was a nice check for $30 for dues. We are deeply grateful to our little missionary friends for this generous gift.

It was good to open the mail this morning and find a request for an adoption of a Russian baby from Sacred Heart School, Perkinville. The pupils of the Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Grades who adopted this baby would like it to be called Joseph Augusta.

The Third and Fourth Grades of St. John's School, Clyde, have saved their pennies to ransom a little Eskimo baby to be called Joseph Thomas. It was good to hear from you boys and girls.

We have a suspicion that we omitted to credit Holy Trinity School, Webster, with the fine record in dues sent us in October. The check amounted to $24.84 and was the dues for the year.

The pupils of St. Charles' Burroughs School, Rochester, have been most faithful in setting aside their pennies to care for their Holy Childhood Dues. As a result they were able to send us a check for $42.

By dint of campaigns and candy sales, the Mission Club of the Eighth Grade of St. Rosalie School have ransomed a little Chinese baby to be called Patrick Martin. The members of the club are wide-awake mission workers and are out to work hard for the missions.

We have just heard from St. Monica's School. What do you think they are ransoming from the students there? Twelve adoptees here they are.

Kindergarten, Negro from Selma, William.

4th Grade Eskimo, Joseph.

4th Grade, Eskimo, Joseph Thomas.

5th Grade Mexican, Rose Marie.

5th Grade, Negro from Selma, James Vincent.

5th Grade, Negro Twins, Selma, Francis Xavier and Russ Xavier.

6th Grade Chinese, Mary Edwina.

7th Grade, Negro Twins, Selma, Elizabeth and William.

8th Grade, Negro Twins, Selma, June and Jean de Charantal.

We close this very fine report with a note from Ralph Inoco of St. John's School, Clyde. He says: I am enclosing $5.00 for the ransom of a baby boy by myself. I am a pupil of the Seventh Grade. I worked during the summer to earn this money and am saving for another ransom. I wish the boy to be called Ralph and have my mother, Anna, for godmother, and my father, Nicholas, for godfather. Will you please place the ransom where it is most needed? Fine work, Ralph, and we shall be delighted to carry out your wishes.

And now if in this long list we have unintentionally omitted any school or grade, please call us and we shall see that it appears in next week's issue. In the meantime, pray hard for the missions.

Bowling
