The news of the death of Anna Rose Kimpel comes as a shock to her friends, many of them in Rochester.

A member of the N. C. C. W. headquarters staff for five years, until 1941, when she transferred to the Women's Division of the National Catholic Community Service, she was also a loyal and enthusiastic Alumna of the National Catholic School of Social Service.

Mrs. Robert Angelo, our National President, represented the Council at the funeral on Saturday last and Miss Agnes G. Regan, the N. C. S. S. S.

A funeral Mass was also sung on Saturday in the Chapel of the School, closing a tridium of Masses and the National Council has arranged for a series of thirty Gregorian Masses for the repose of her soul.

We gratefully acknowledge receipt of $100 from the women of the Corning Deanery, a donation toward our diocesan pledge of $200 to the Maintenance Fund of the N.C.S.S.S.

When You Need Emergency Money—

WEIGH

these possibilities

1. You can cash the War Bonds that you have.
2. Or you can take care of these emergencies with a

Central Trust Loan

It should be pretty obvious to both of us which is the better choice. Nobody knows better than you do yourself the purpose for which you bought those War Bonds. . . . Don't defect that purpose by stopping half-way because of the pressure of personal necessities.
