

A Word Of Advice

By the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Robert P. Keegan, Secretary, New York Catholic (Auxiliary)

This war is the costliest war since the dawn of time. But certainly whatever the cost, the knowledge that our country and our people shall survive is worth whatever sacrifice we are called upon to make.

For many of us an investment of ten percent of our current income in War Savings Bonds means sacrifice. For many of us it means that we shall have to forego some of our accustomed luxuries and indulgences. But my friends, we must realize that there can be no victory without sacrifice.

Ask yourself this question: "If your ten percent of income invested in War Savings Bonds stood between you and victory, what would you do?"

I am sure that you and I and everyone of us would make all haste to subscribe willingly wholeheartedly and gladly. Your War Bonds are your share in that victory. Make sure that the sacrifices you decide to make are devoted to this worthwhile of all causes, the winning of our war for freedom and peace with justice after victory. God bless America.

God's Acre

By DOLORES HOFFMAN

Blessed are the souls who are resting there
God has taken them into His loving care
But we are privileged to help them rise
To their rightful place beyond the skies.

The plot is vast all is quiet and still
These holy souls are subject to His Divine Will
So each prayer and act done for these we love
Will bring them nearer to God above.

Let us forget just remember one day
We'll be in God's Acre the same as they
And if we bring help to them in their pain
We will have laid up a goodly gain.

Modest and heart-felt courtesy has been well called the magnet of love.
