ST. MONICA'S PARISH

FALL FESTIVAL SATURDAY

By Mary E. Canfield
The Holy Name Society of St. Monica's Church will conduct its annual Fall Festival at the Parish Hall, Genesee Street, on Saturday evening, November 21.

John J. Sullivan has been appointed chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements. Everyone is invited, and entertainment will be provided for all attending.

Earl Briceford is president of the organization.

THURSDAY MASSES

As was announced at the Masses on last Sunday, there will be a special Mass offered at 10 o'clock on Thanksgiving Day (Thursday, November 20), for an early and blessed "victory and peace," and for the safe return of "all our boys."

SERVICE HONOR ROLL

Once again the people of St. Monica's are reminded of the Service Honor Roll. For the past few weeks, a copy of this Honor Roll has been posted in the front vestibule of the Church, and the number of names included on the list to date totals 310. If by some chance, you have neglected to send in the name of your boy or girl who is now serving with the Armed Forces, please do so before Sunday, November 22. Just call Genesee 138, St. Monica's Rectory, and give his name and the branch of the service in which he is serving.

It is hoped that the complete, up-to-date Honor Roll will be ready for the special Thanksgiving Day services.

PAINTING MOVED

The beautiful painting of the Nativity which for so many years was in the sanctuary of St. Monica's Church, has been placed on the side wall of the church, near the St. Joseph Altar and overlooking the Communion Rail.

The picture has been retouched by one of the artists who has been working on the church redecoration, and is most effective in its new setting.

MEMORIAL SERVICES

Memorial services are being held each Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock during the month of November for the deceased members of the parish. The services include prayers for the dead, special mention of the members of the Church societies who have died during the past year, and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Mail Christmas Parcels Now

The Post Office Department now is starting the most gigantic task in its history—the movement of a deluge of Christmas parcels cards and letters while maintaining the regular flow of millions of pieces of mail daily to and from our armed forces all over the world.

Indications are that the volume of Christmas mail will be the largest on record. Already in September (latest month for which figures are available, retail sales had reached a level second only to the record month of December, 1941, according to the Department of Commerce. And sales are rising. Such heavy purchases always pre-empt heavy mailings.

If thousands of our soldiers, sailors, marines and civilian friends are not to be disappointed at Christmas time, the public must cooperate by mailing earlier than ever before and by addressing letters and parcels properly. The best efforts of the Post Office Department alone cannot be enough in view of wartime difficulties faced by the postal system. The public must assist.

About 25,000 experienced postal workers already have been taken by the war services. Arrangements are under way to add thousands of temporary personnel to postal staffs, but this manpower is hard to find and is inexperienced. Facilities of railroads and air lines are heavily taxed by movements of huge quantities of war materials and personnel. Extra trucks are almost impossible to obtain. Winter weather, hampering transportation is beginning.

The free mailing privilege granted to members of the armed forces has raised their mailings some 30 per cent, it is estimated. Expansion of those forces also is adding rapidly to the postal burden.

The deadline already is past for mailing gifts to Army and Navy personnel overseas with assurance that the parcels will arrive by Christmas.

The Post Office Department is making strenuous efforts to avoid such a terrific jam as it faced in 1918 under similar conditions, during the First World War. It can succeed in those efforts and avoid many heartaches for its patrons if the public will cooperate by mailing early.

'Keep-'Em Smokin' Revue Nov. 20

For the second time, Beatrice, star of the "Gay Nineties Revue," is coming to Western New York for personal appearances.

She will appear as the featured artist in the "Keep em Smokin' Musical Extravaganza at the Masonic Auditorium, Rochester, on Friday. Her appearance here included Tuesday night show at the Eastman and Wednesday and Thursday at the Auditorium.

Sponsored by the Al Sigi Send-a-Package Club, the Musical Extravaganza will have a cast of 250 dancers, singers and dramatic artists to give a fast-moving two hours entertainment for both young and old.

Hearing the vivacious star of the "Gay Nineties Revue" on the radio is one thing, but seeing her in old time costumes and hearing her in songs of another day is a performance you just won't want to miss.

With our boys fighting on many fronts, there's nothing too good for them and a "smoke in a tight place" is what many of them will most appreciate. That's what the proceeds of the Musical Extravaganza will provide for them.

Tickets for the Musical Extravaganza may be obtained by telephoning Keep em Smokin' Musical Extravaganza Office, 119 East Ave. Rochester, N. Y. General Admission is $1.10, with Reserved Seats at $1.65, $2.20 and $2.75, including tax.

S. of C. Newman Club Elects Officers

The School of Commerce Newman Club elected officers for the coming year at the regular monthly meeting on Wednesday. Miss Dorothy Grunler of St. John the Evangelist parish, a graduate of Our Lady of Mercy High School, was elected president in a run-off election after a tie vote between her and Mildred Voelkl, a graduate of Nazareth Academy.

Marion Whitaker of St. Ann's parish was elected treasurer and Mary Nagel of Oakfield was elected secretary.

The Rev. Lawrence B. Casey, Vice Chancellor of the diocese, has been moderator of the club since its formation one year ago. At the meeting plans were discussed for several social functions proposed for the school year, to be held by the School of Commerce Club and in conjunction with affiliated clubs in the Rochester area.

THANKSGIVING BAZAAR

The annual Thanksgiving bazaar will take place in St. George's Church hall at 553 Hudson Ave. during three evenings, viz., Nov. 21, 24 and 25. The Parish Committee, headed by the Rev. John Bakaya, are planning new and entertaining features mingled with the traditional ones.

The special booths for this year will be under the guidance of the young Ladies' Sodality and St. Mary's Society. For a few hours of entertaining fun and skill, our parishioners and friends are invited to see this parish social.
