AT AQUINAS INSTITUTE

By ROGER TRABOLD

The Aquinas Mission Crusade is going full strength this year. Under the able direction of Father Haffey, James Sullivan, William Eichter and the various homeroom leaders, the contributions to the Missions have picked up and are increasing rapidly. There are expectations that this year will surpass past years in Mission Proceeds.

Mission Mixers Discontinued

Due to transportation problems and other difficulties, the Mission Mixers will not be held this year. Previously these were after-school dances, proceeds of which went to the Missions.

Relay on Mission Spirit

The Mission program is counting mostly on the Mission spirit of the students to go "all out" in their offerings. Many students have after-school jobs now and can better afford to support the Missions. Now that the football season is over, Aquinas is setting down to real Mission activity.

Donald Cleary, who was one of Father Fox's right-hand men in the early days of the Sodality Union, and who is now Catholic Chaplain at Cornell University, was toastmaster.

Speakers for the testimonial were Monsignor Hart, Miss Florence Dietrich, president of the Sodality Union, the Misses Helen Guntert, Mary Leary, Rita Doolin and Mrs. Margaret McMahon, former presidents of the Union, Rev. Roy B. Morphy, recently appointed to succeed Father Fox, Miss Willmann, Father LeBuffe, and Bishop Kearney. Each in his turn spoke of the outstanding work Father Fox has done in Sodality and organization work and more particularly of his undying "interest in souls."

Mrs. Betty Keegan, accompanied at the piano by Miss Francis Ennis, rendered two vocal selections, and Father Morphy, ably assisted by Miss Willmann and Father LeBuffe, led the group in community singing.

Mrs. Fox received a floral tribute from the Sodality and Helen Guntert presented Father Fox with the jeweled Sodality pin and a war bond.

In expressing his admiration of the Sodality work in general and of its benefit to the people of Rochester in particular, Bishop Kearney stated that "it was his fervent hope that the chapters that follow may present as pleasing a picture in the sight of the Mother of God as the chapter that closes tonight."
