Immaculate Conception

SOLENN NOVENA OPENS

A solemn novena in honor of the Feast of the Immaculate Conception started on last Sunday evening. Services are being conducted each evening by the Rev. Clement Buckley, C.P.

During the nine evenings of the Novena, the various words of Mary as recorded in Scripture form the basis for the discourse.

On Sunday evening Dec. 6, His Excellency, Bishop Kearney, will give the address, as has been his custom for the past few years. The Novena will close on Monday evening with a sermon on the words of the Blessed Virgin to Bernadette, "I am the Immaculate Conception."

SCOUTS COURT OF HONOR

Boy Scouts are making preparations for their Court of Honor on Dec. 14 by Troop hikes on the past two Sundays. Fall weather makes ideal hiking conditions, and many of the boys are getting in their fourteen mile hike and other requirements for advancement in this manner.

ROSARY GUILD MEETS

Members of the Rosary Guild will have their monthly meeting on next Monday evening after Church services. A Christmas

WEDDINGS

Sadler - Doyle

A lovely ceremony performed at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, Nov. 21 in the Immaculate Conception Church marked the marriage of Miss Dorothy Florence Doyle, daughter of Mrs. Florence M. Doyle of Bartlett St. and PFC. Joseph Peter Sadler son of Eugene Sadler of Seager St. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph S. Cameron performed the ceremony. Mary Genevieve Doyle, sister of the bride was maid of honor. Al Sadler, brother of the groom, was best man. The ushers were Arthur Wischmeyer and Bud Millington.

The wedding breakfast for the bride's party was served at the home of the bride and dinner at 1 o'clock at No. 1229 Lake Ave., and later a reception was held at the bride's home. Mr. and Mrs. Sadler after a western honeymoon will be at home at No. 163 Bartlett St., about Dec. 1. PFC Sadler will re-

SODALITY PLANS HOLY NOON

The Senior Sodality of Holy Rosary Church held a Supper Meeting last Tuesday evening in the school hall. Father McCarthy gave a beautiful talk on the duties of a sodality, also a message on "Christ the Light of the World." Afterwards the Office of Our Lady was recited.

Plans were made to set apart a certain day each month whereby the socialists would participate in a

"Holy Noon" Motion Picture and a folk dance brought this enjoyable evening to a close.

Also, a library has been formed which promises many excellent books, thanks due to Director P. McCarthy.
