GIVES BLOOD AS BIRTHDAY GIFT TO SOLDIER BROTHER

CHICAGO—Mrs. Sophie Krupp Hase, a member of St. George's Lutheran parish today gave one pint of blood to the Red Cross "as a birthday present" for her brother, Private John Hase. Although he may never need it, said Mrs. Hase, it will go to some soldier-man who does.

It was the third time she had donated blood and this is only one phase of her war activities. Last month she directed the collection of 4000 pounds of scrap for Junior Commission of St. George's Parish. She is a telegraph operator and has applied for Government service.

Courage is allied to cheerfulness. Indeed, courage is vastly helped by cheerfulness—the combination is well-nigh invincible. And each victory of courage justifies the effort at cheerfulness. After it cheerfulness becomes a simpler virtue and courage lifts its head still higher.
