AT AQUINAS INSTITUTE

Commando Course To Begin Soon

Aquinas students will soon be participating in a new type of physical training designed to develop and exercise every muscle of the body. An obstacle course which is somewhat similar to the one at West Point is now nearing completion.

At the start a hurdle of two feet in height must be overcome followed by another hurdle four feet high which is vaulted by means of the hands. Next students will dodge through a series of posts. Then over the hurdle which is eight feet high, do a vault of all footings which may be done by placing the hands on the top and pulling under it and over.

After this they will crawl under a rope suspended eighteen inches from the ground. The next obstacle is a ditch eight feet wide which has to be jumped. Then to acquire a sense of balance on the grounds running along elevated planks spaced at right angles is required. Finally a ramp twelve feet long and gradually rising four feet which the boys will run up and leap off completely the obstacles. The climax is spring 100 yards to the finish line.

'Pearl Harbor Day' Marked At Mercy High

Pearl Harbor Day was a Red Letter Day at Mercy High School. The day opened with an Induction Assembly at which 125 volunteer inductees voted upon by the faculty and student committee were awarded the insignia for general membership in the Victory Corps. The President's Declaration of War issued last December 7th was given by Jeanne Schneider a Junior. The Bill of Rights as seen through the eyes of a refugee was outlined by Norcen Carey following a recording by Helen Hayes of the Battle Hymn of the Republic, the student body united in singing the same song.

Mr. M. Francesco, Principal, commented on the importance of student effort and sacrifice in winning the war. A second induction service was promised before the Christmas vacation. After Sister's remarks, Father Lawrence B. Conroy, Religious Instructor awarded the insignias. An appropriate movie and community sing program followed.

The sale of war bonds and stamps shot to a new height for the day. The total Dec. 7 day sale through student effort, amounted to $1300. Students in charge of the booth were busy and expectant during selling hours.

in the sight of God to avert the disaster threatened by the present war and the havoc that will follow the war in Europe. A close student of conditions in Europe the speaker predicted dire happenings and bloodshed in the present trend of events. He urged the knights to increase their devotion and prayers that God might spare the world from the punishment, which could be wrought on the peoples of a World divided.

Industrial League Lists Games

The Rochester Industrial Basketball League with two weeks of play behind them enter the third week of activity on Monday Dec. 14 at Madison High School with another dual bill. There is one gift that each one of us must obtain. A gift that we could never deserve and yet it is never denied to him who prays. The gift of final perseverance.

To preach the Name of Jesus is to give light; to think of it is to feed the soul; to call on it is to win grace and union.
