Would Restore Cortez Structure As Church

MEXICO CITY, (CNC) A solemn Requiem Mass was offered in the Church of La Enseñanza in commemoration of Fernando Cortez on the 395th anniversary of his death. The Mass was sponsored by the Nationalist Unification Movement which seeks to render just tribute to those whose memory has been obscured as a part of the sectarian and Communist propaganda to which Mexico has been subjected in recent years.

Meanwhile there is a controversy regarding disposition of the Church of Jesus and the adjoining hospital which Cortez founded here. The Society for Cortezian Studies has not yet determined what use will be made of the church.

A committee of Catholic women is endeavoring to have the edifice restored as a place of worship but the Office of Public Assistance wishes it to be used as a Cortez museum. Opponents of the museum plan believe that the most fitting memorial for Cortez and his men would be to use the building for the purpose for which Cortez built it.

There is an allocation of $30,000 made by the Bishops' Committee in aid of Poles who are present refugees in Iran, Turkey and India. This substantial allotment, which is added to already considerable allocations made for the relief of Polish victims of the present war, will purchase supplies of medicine and clothing to be shipped directly to groups of Polish women and children in these countries by the Bishops' Committee.

The Bishops' War Emergency and relief committee is composed of the Archbishops and Bishops who comprise the Administrative Board of the National Catholic Welfare Conference.
