

HOLY FAMILY PARISH

PLACANT AT OUTDOOR CRIB

Two Solemn High Masses will take place in the Feast of Christmas at Holy Family Church at Midnight, one being celebrated in the church, at Midnight, one being celebrated in the church, the other in the Auditorium.

At 11 P. M. Thursday will be the broadcast of the Christmas from the amplifier in the church itself.

At 11:30 P. M., children portraying the Shepherds, clothed in robes and hoods, will march in procession from the Auditorium on Lorenzo St. to the beautiful outdoor crib erected in the front yard of the rectory. Here the youngsters will sing the "Adeste Fideles."

The Mass in the church will be sung by the Adult Choir with the children's choir being heard in the Auditorium.

The Rev. William W. Heisel, pastor, will preach the Christmas sermon in the church. The Rev. Raymond J. Wahl will deliver the Christmas message in the Auditorium.

Other Masses on Christmas Day will be at 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 with High Mass and Benediction at 11 and the last Mass for defense workers in the parish at 12:15 (noon).

DEDICATE SERVICE NOEL

An impressive service will take place in Holy Family Church on Wednesday evening, Jan. 6 at 7:30 P. M. when a plaque to honor boys in the parish in the armed forces will be dedicated.

The beautiful nativity service will have been donated by a member of the Holy Name Society.

Senior Chaplain Eugene B. LeGault of the Sampson Naval Training Station will preach the dedicatory sermon.

The plaque will provide space for 400 names of the boys of Holy Family parish now serving their country.

The dedicated plaque will be placed in the Sanctuary beneath the statue of the Sacred Heart.
