Armed Services Call Many Youths From Auburn

Private Frederick L. Salzer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Salzer of 5 Seymour St., is stationed at the Army Air Corps Ground School at Atlantic City, N. J. Private Salzer is a graduate of St. Alphonsus Parochial School and of East High School where he was active in athletics. Previous to entering the service he was a popular young salesman and a member of the Columbian Squares Organization with whom he played basketball and softball.

Private Eugene J. Gleason, who was stationed at Parris Island, S. C., for the last four months, has been transferred to Cherry Point, N. C., to the Aviation Engineering Corps. Gleason is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Gleason of 84 Washington St. He was graduated from St. Aloysius Parochial School and from the Auburn Senior High School with the Class of 1939. Previous to enlisting with the Marines, Gleason was in the engineering office of J. Joseph Tohan, former City Engineer.

Technical Sergt. William T. Lovell has returned to Camp Robinson at Little Rock, Ark., after spending a 10-day furlough in the city visiting his sisters, Mrs. Joseph Fogarty and Mrs. Joseph Cimpf, and his brother, Elbert C. Lovell of Auburn. Lovell, who was a baker at the Sun Baking Company before signing up with Uncle Sam, is on the baking staff at Camp Robinson.

Staff Sergt. Anthony D'Angelo is spending a furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John D'Angelo of 83 Washington St. D'Angelo is stationed at Camp Atterbury, Ind., where he participated in athletics and where he was a member of the Camp Atterbury Championship touch football team. Sergeant D'Angelo took part in high school athletics in 1932-34-35. He has been in the service for about two years. He also played left guard on the 39th Evacuation Hospital eleven when that team recently met and defeated the 960th Infantry, 3rd Battalion for the championship by a 6-0 score.

Corp. J. Edward Maloney has been promoted to the rank of Sergeant. After entering the service on June 1 at Fort Niagara, Sergeant Maloney was assigned to Camp Croft, S. C. He is now stationed with the office staff of the headquarters of the Second Army at Memphis, Tenn. Sergeant Maloney, who is a native of Aurora, was a well known Auburn salesman.

Private Edward F. Krause, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Krause of 84 Steel St., who entered the service several weeks ago, has been assigned to Camp Crowder, Missouri, with the U. S. Signal Corps. Krause, who is one of the leading basketball players of Central New York, has been invited to try for a place on the basketball squad that will represent Camp Crowder in service and collegiate competition this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Gleason of 145 Genesee Street have received a letter from their nephew, George E. Gleason of Company 8, 660th Engineers. He writes that he is overseas and that everything is O. K.
