

STUDENT CHEER FOR SOLDIERS

Filling Christmas packages for service men was the all-absorbing occupation of the Sodality girls at Maryknoll High School, Monroeville. The members pictured above are mounting medals on holly-decked cards, and sorting rosaries, scapulars and holy cards collected by the students during the year. These religious articles, so greatly in demand by Catholics in service, were included in a box of goodies, tastefully arranged, and packed with Christmas trimmings. The outlooker, whose advice is sought from time to time, is Sister Mary Elizabeth Ann Altman, R. N., of Greensburg, Pa. She is one of 30 Maryknoll Sisters engaged in school and social service work in Hawaii. (N.C.W.C.)
