Veteran Parishioner

Louis A. Blocker, 84 of 20 1/2 W. 17th St., died Christmas morning after a long illness. He had been an active member of the church and an employee of the Eclipse Machine Co. for the past 33 years. He was also a member of the Fraternal Order of Eagles and the Nocturnal Adoration Society. As long as he was able, he was the main standing of all church activities. His nickname "Happy" was appropriately applied to him, and few acquaintances knew him by any other name. He was always willing to help a neighbor, and he considered everyone his neighbor. Sympathy is extended to his widow.

The funeral was held Monday, Dec. 28. A prayer service was offered at his home at 2:30, and Mass at 3 A. M., with the Rev. Thomas Toole officiating. Burial in St. Peter and Paul's Cemetery.

Parish Priest Makes Credit Union Pay

SHEET HARBOR, N. S.—Labors of the priesthood are sufficient to keep the most active of men busy, but the Rev. Father J. Johnson, local parish priest, has found time to head the successful operation of a public credit union and general co-operative unit.

Started originally as a cooperative banking venture only, the union recently expanded to open a cooperative general store, where merchandise of all variety is available to union members. The union and store has the cooperation of the chief local industry, the Halifax Paper and Pulp Co. The union recently voted 3 per cent interest to shareholders and a 15 per cent rebate to borrowers.

St. Patrick's (Elmira)

High School Students' Dance

Two hundred fifty young people attended the holiday dance held by the High School Association of St. Patrick's Parish on Wednesday, Dec. 29 from 8:30 to 11:30 P. M. at the Mark Tuck Hotel. Music was provided by The Echo with the addition of 3 supplementary pieces. The entertainment was highlighted by the singing of a trio composed of Jeanne Paul, Terese Richardson, and Madaya Chana.

The high school students were chaperoned by the following young married couples: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cleary, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ogrish, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lynch.

CAUSE BROUGHT

Lima.—The program for the Beatification of the Rev. Ray Ramos Rojas, O.F.M., begun in 1921, has been reopened by order of the Most Rev. Pedro Pascual Pizarro, Archbishop of Lima. The original documents containing information indispensable in the progress of the cause of "Padre Quispeola," as this Franciscan was popularly known, have been lost.

Notes Women's Role Widening

WASHINGTON.—The enlarged part which women will play in American life by reason of the war was stressed by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Patrick J. McCormick, Acting Rector of the Catholic University of America, in addressing the annual convocation of the local chapter of the International Federation of Catholic Alumnae, of which he is director.

"This war has already opened up new careers for women," Msgr. McCormick said. "With the new expansion of business since the opportunity will be available in the professions, in industry, in government service and in public life. One day it will not only be women who will support what were formerly regarded as men's jobs, but women will be called to serve in the armed forces. These positions, in industry, in the professions and in government will have to be taken over by women. This means that women available for such service will have to be prepared and much of this preparation will depend upon the schools.

Urges Mothers of Small Children To Stay Home

NEW YORK.—Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins, speaking at a conference of the New York Women's Trade Union League, urged women with young children to remain at home rather than enter the war work.

The principal complaint of employers in war industries, Secretary Perkins said, in connection with the employment of women, is the high absentee rate, chiefly among very young women, and those who have children.

The steel-headed can't be manfully. The idea of good mothers is to make the other fellow feel important.—Scranton Tribune.

"When college men will be called to greater numbers, as we expect they will, there will be a proper balance of women receiving college training. This suggests that there will be more potential leadership among women students than heretofore. The colleges must become conscious of this situation and the possibilities it holds out for the future."
