

Flays Race Discrimination

BROOKLYN.—Opposition to racial discrimination, a condemnation of lynchings and the demand for social justice for all regardless of race were expressed in resolutions passed by the Priests' Societies Action Committee of the Diocese of Brooklyn here this week. The resolutions declared: (1) "We deplore the reluctant and piecemeal employment of qualified Negroes by war industries and the refusal of many labor unions to admit Negroes into their ranks."

(2) "We regret and condemn the disgraceful and time-consuming filibuster against the anti-lynch bill before the United States Senate." (3) "We condemn the horror of Negro lynchings and declare it a blot upon our nation. We urge the passing of the Cavanagh anti-lynching bill and its immediate consideration."

TOYS FOR CHILDREN

Many thanks are due the children of St. Monica's School for the wonderful way in which they responded to the Red Cross call for old toys.

Under the direction of Miss Flora Behn, Miss E. Weismann, Miss A. Clifton, Mrs. Josephine Neubert and Mrs. Elva Wagner, a Christmas party, was held for 27 colored children at the St. Peter Church Monday evening, Dec. 28. The toys which had been turned in by the boys and girls of St. Monica's and which numbered about 1,000 items, were arranged, packed and made very appropriate gifts for those who attended the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen of Park St. were chaperones for the little affair, and refreshments, including ice cream, cake and candy, were served to all present.

STUDY CLUB MEETS

The High School Study Club did not meet on Wednesday of this week, but will resume their sessions on next Wednesday, at 8 o'clock.

BOYS TO MEET

The Boy Scouts also cancelled their regular weekly meeting. They will meet on next Monday evening at the regular time.

Honor Catholic Editor On Paper's Jubilee

ST. PAUL, Minn.—Joseph Matt, editor and publisher of Der Wanderer, Catholic weekly newspaper, was honored at a testimonial reception on the occasion of the diamond jubilee of the publication.

The celebration was sponsored by the St. Peter and St. Clements Benevolent Society. The Most Rev. John Gregory Murray, Archbishop of St. Paul, was the principal speaker.

His Excellency criticized those present-day publications which "show no recognition of responsibility to God, the people, or to morals."

"The money consideration is primary," the Archbishop said. "The revolt against God and decency in Hollywood commands a page in nearly every daily newspaper because of the power of advertising."

URGES INCLUSION OF POPE IN PEACE DELIBERATIONS

ORCHARD LAKE, Mich. — A pamphlet entitled "Peace and the Church, America and Poland," by the Rev. Walery J. Jasinaki, professor of Dogmatic Theology at the SS. Cyril and Methodius Seminary here, has just been published.

The booklet rejects the false concepts of peace, such as totalitarian peace, secularistic peace, and peace of exploitation, and proposes the Catholic doctrine of peace based upon St. Thomas Aquinas and the Papal Encyclicals. It stresses the significance of the peace program of Pope Pius XII and the principles of the Pact of the United Nations. It maintains that the Pope should have an influence on the peace commensurate with his high moral authority. It also gives a summary of the Holy Father's activities on behalf of the Poles and Poland.
