

Brazil Missionary To Close Latin-American Forum Talks

Redemptorist Father To Speak At Nazareth Auditorium, Jan. 12

Final lecture in the Latin American Forum series will be held at Nazareth Academy Auditorium Tuesday night, Jan. 12, at 8:15 P. M. The Rev. Albert G. Braun, O.S.B., will discuss "Our Good Neighbor Policy."

Returned recently from South America, Father Braun is an experienced lecturer on this country. He worked in Brazil from 1931 to 1933 and then spent a year and a half in Paraguay. At present he is stationed at the Diocesan Retreat House in Geneva.

Father Braun will point out the responsibility of Americans in learning more of our South American neighbors, of the importance of understanding our economic relationships with Latin American countries and our part in promoting good neighborliness.

Concluding the series of six lectures, Tuesday night's lecture will present the Catholic reasons for our interest in South American affairs. It is expected that a record attendance will be present.

Dr. Zwerlein Heard

The Rev. Frederick J. Zwerlein, S.T.L., O.S.B.M.H., spoke last night at Aquinas Institute, on "Mexico and Its Troubles." Dr. Zwerlein, an authority on the subject of Mexico, and a famed lecturer, showed that the main problem facing Mexico today is the School Problem. The speaker showed the similarity between educational systems in Mexico and the United States where religion has been divorced from education.

"If Mexico's Red Revolution, the speaker stated, "abetted by Washington Governments, both Democratic and Republican had been mindful of George Washington's reference to 'religion and morality indispensable supports, Mexican legislation would not have divorced religion from education and made it socialist."

Another Belgian Abbey Confiscated By Nazis

LONDON The Abbey of St. An dre, near Bruges, Belgium, is the latest religious house in that walled country to have been confiscated by the German Nazis according to information published in The Tablet, English Catholic Weekly.

The Abbey, founded in 1001, belongs to the Brazilian Congregation of the Benedictines. It is the congregation's only house in Europe.

2 Families in Parish Have 10 Sons in Armed Forces

GLENDIVE, Mont. — The Hirt and the Wing families, both of the Sacred Heart parish here, have ten sons in the armed services. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hirt have six sons in uniform and Mrs. Virginia Wing has four. Mrs. Hirt has been awarded the gold medal presented by the Government to those mothers who have many sons in service.

NEW YEAR'S GREETINGS are exchanged by His Excellency, Bishop Kearney with Colonel Edward P. O'Hern, U. S. Army retired, and brother of the late Bishop O'Hern, among the many of the laity calling at the Episcopal Residence, last Sunday.

Bishop Conducts Holy Hour As New Year Arrives

The hymn "Mother dearest, Mother fairest," sung for the men and women in the armed forces greeted the New Year of 1943 at the Holy Hour conducted by His Excellency, Bishop Kearney in Sacred Heart Cathedral.

A half hour before the stroke of 12 the Bishop, assisted by priests of the Cathedral, opened the Holy Hour with the Blessed Sacrament was exposed for adoration and the Benediction hymn was sung.

Recitation of the Rosary, led by the Bishop, was followed by a discourse on the occasion. His Excellency spoke of others' choice of drama, of music, of things to be eaten, but "we, like Mary in the Gospel have chosen the better part to greet the New Year in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament."

The Bishop spoke of the "bit-terest year in history," just closing, and urged prayers and petitions for Divine intercession in world affairs in the year ahead.

At Midnight all present joined in silent meditation. Following singing of the hymn to the Blessed Mother, the Bishop, assisted by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. George V. Burns, pastor, the Rev. Lawrence B. Casey, the Rev. Joseph J. O'Connell, the Rev. Joseph J. Sullivan, the Rev. John T. Callahan and the Rev. John F. Hayes, sung the Preface of the Mass of the Holy Trinity.

The congregation joined in singing Adeste Fideles and the closing Benediction hymn. Benediction was imparted by His Excellency Bishop Kearney. The Bishop extended New Year's greetings personally to those present following the services.

A Solemn Pontifical Mass was celebrated by the Bishop in Sacred Heart Cathedral at noon on New Year's Day and in the afternoon the priests were greeted by His Excellency at the episcopal residence on East Ave. Laity at Reception.

The custom of exchanging greetings with the laity was carried out.

India Notes Growing Religious Vocations

KARACHI, India. Despite war uncertainties a marked increase in religious vocations has been noted here. Two young women, Miss Mary Peter and Miss Josephine D'Souza, received the habit of Franciscan Missionaries of Christ, the King, and received the names of Sister Mary Imelda and Sister Mary Josephine, respectively. At the same time, two novices, Sister Mary Philomena and Sister Mary Isabella, pronounced their first temporary vows. Earlier four postulantes entered the community.

We are most in need of prayer when the tempter puts it into our hearts to excuse ourselves by thinking that we have no time to pray.
